Former Government Official Says He Never Divulged Information to Unauthorized Persons

TEACHER STILL HIDES

BULLETIN
Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—The state department has advised the House Un-American Activities Committee it can serve a subpoena on the Russian woman school teacher currently in New York. Press Officer Michael McDermott told a news conference the state department's legal division has given acting chairman Mundt (R-S.D.) of the house committee this opinion in answer to his request for an official ruling.

Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—Duncan C. Lee, 33-year-old former OSS operative, denied in the face of new accusations today that he ever gave secret information to Elizabeth T. Bentley, confessed former Russian agent.

In one-two order, the House Un-American Activities Committee put Lee on its stand and then recalled Miss Bentley to repeat accusations she has made.

Lee, during the war, was with the Office of Strategic Services, a counter espionage agency. He is now practicing law here.

Lee swore he was not a Communist and said he never disclosed secret information to an unauthorized person. He said it was hard to believe Miss Bentley's charges came from a "rational person."

Miss Bentley then took the stand and testified Lee told her about "something super secret" going at Oak Ridge, Tenn., where the atom bomb was developed, about OSS operations in China and in the Balkans.

Lee didn't know exactly what was going on at Oak Ridge, Miss Bentley said, but told her it must be "something super secret" because it was so highly guarded.

She said he gave her the information during a conversation outside his home in Washington. Lee, who was shot down while on an OSS mission to China, had flatly testified under oath that "I have never divulged classified information to any unauthorized person."

Lee was the day's first witness.

The committee called Lee while deliberating whether and when to call Michael Ivanovitch Samarin, a Russian school teacher.

Samarin has broken with Soviet representatives in this country and gone to the FBI with a story not yet disclosed. He is in hiding, but the committee apparently knows where he is.

The Soviet embassy has formally demanded that Samarin be handed over to Soviet consular authorities. Both the state department and the congressional committee rejected that demand.

The committee wants to quiz the Samarin to see if they have any additional information about Russian intrigues in this country. It would like to fire some questions, too, at another Russian teacher, Mrs. Oksana Stepanovna Kosenkina.

Samarin and Mrs. Kosenkina have been teaching children of Russian officials assigned to the United Nations in New York. The school was disbanded, and students and teachers booked to sail for their homeland last month.

But Samarin and Mrs. Kosenkina were not aboard when the ship sailed on Saturday. The White Russian said the ship didn't intend to let them miss the next boat.

They're pretty sure Mrs. Kosenkina is going because she is in the Soviet consulate in New York City, "resting" after having been "rescued" from some anti-Communist White Russians on Saturday.

The White Russian said the ship fled to them in fear of her life and was taken away against her will.

The Russians don't know where to locate the Samarin, who hid out after Samarin voluntarily went to the FBI office in New York Sunday.

Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panuyshkin handed the state department a formal note yesterday demanding that the teacher and his family "be given under the protection of the consul general in New York."

Government Aims New Blow At Living Costs By Hiking Price For Borrowed Money

Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—The government aimed a new blow at living costs today by boosting the price it will pay for some of its borrowed money.

Private finance is expected to follow suit and demand a higher rate on its loans.

That the administration's goal in this process of making credit more expensive is to discourage some of the borrowing that has been cited as one factor in inflation.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder gave the cue last night. He announced that the government shortly will pay more interest on its short-term securities.

The first impact of Snyder's move will be felt September 15 and October 1. On those dates some $10,500,000,000 in government issues will fall due, or about one-twenty-fifth of the national debt.

These will be replaced with issues paying a slightly higher rate. Treasury certificates which have carried 1 1/2 per cent, for example, will give place to certificates paying 1 3/4 per cent.

That means it will cost the government $12.50 to borrow $1,000 instead of the $11.25 it now is paying.

By the time these higher rates go into effect it is expected that the Federal Reserve Board will have brought into play the new controls over bank and consumer credit which were authorized Saturday by the special session of congress.

Officials have predicted that President Truman will sign these into law quickly, accompanying his approval with a denunciation of the more drastic powers he asked—price-wage, rationing and priority powers; the federal reserve board plans to pinch up credit on nearly every major item sold at retail on the installment plan.

The controls over down payments are likely to return to one-third down for passenger cars, refrigerators, washing machines, radios, silverware, jewelry and other items. Twenty per cent was required for furniture, pianos, rugs and draperies under the wartime "regulation W" which put a 12-month limit on time payment plans.

POLITICAL NAMES IN PITTSBURGH INQUIRY

Pittsburgh, Aug. 10.—(P)—Names of political figures to appear yesterday in the grand jury's investigation of charges that racketeers flourish here under police and political protection.

Thomas Kirk, Democratic chairman of the Homewood-Brushton area, was sworn in as a witness and it was announced that John Duggan, budget controller, had been subpoenaed.

Duggan is also treasurer of the Democratic committee in Allegheny county. Private Detective Al Florio, whose charges of protected racketeers resulted in the probe, claims racketeers are heavy contributors to political campaigns.

Potter Co. Center of Big Search For McKean Slayer

Coudersport, Aug. 10.—(P)—A posse of state police, using a pack of bloodhounds, combed the mountains north of here today in search of a 28-year-old husband wanted in the slaying of his young wife.

The posse, composed of members of both the Pennsylvania and New York state police and area game wardens, was organized yesterday after the husband was reported seen in nearby Oswayo.

State Policeman B. P. Timpano said the man, George Miketish, of Gifford, McKean county, is wanted for questioning in connection with the fatal clubbing of his wife Gertrude, 33, at the home of her parents at Gifford on August 2.

Timpano said Mrs. Miketish was beaten to death with the butt of a shotgun. At the same time, her father, Darwin Daily, 48, was wounded by a shotgun charge, and her mother, Mrs. Linda Daily, 43, also was beaten with a gun butt.

The state policeman said Miketish disappeared shortly after the slaying and police along the Pennsylvania-New York border were alerted after he was reported seen Friday night at nearby Shinglehouse.

Timpano said a search at that time failed to reveal any trace of the missing man. He added that another report early yesterday that Miketish was in Oswayo prompted formation of the posse.

The manhunt got underway yesterday and continued throughout last night.

The search is being concentrated in the thickly-mountainous area north of here. The bloodhounds being used in the hunt were brought from Rockview State Prison in Centre county.

Waynesburg, Aug. 10.—(P)—Physicians at Greene county hospital continued their efforts today to find a cure for the hiccupps that have wracked Pauline Lucas, down from 129 pounds to 78 in the last 170 days.

Miss Lucas, 31-year-old clerk, started hiccupping Feb. 23. Part of the time she hiccupps 75 times a minute with the rate slowing down occasionally to 10 or 15.

Doctors have tried medicinals and anesthesia while the dark-haired victim has herself attempted most of the old home cures—holding her breath, a knife placed under a glass, a sudden fright, but the hiccupping continued.

Her physician, Dr. A. J. Blair, said Miss Lucas' greatest relief came through the use of anaesthesia.

HOUSING BILL SIGNED WITH BLAST AT GOP

Chief Executive Scores Congress for "Neglect" in Not Providing Adequate Measure

PROVIDES SOME HELP

Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—President Truman signed the housing bill into law today with a blast at the Republican-controlled congress for "deliberate neglect" of people most in need of adequate living quarters.

Mr. Truman said the measure falls "far short of the legislation which could and should have been enacted." He said in a statement that he was signing the bill because it would be "of some help" in meeting the critical housing shortage.

The President accused the House Republican leaders of blocking consideration of another bill which would have provided "decent housing" for millions of families.

Mr. Truman referred to the Taft-Elliender-Wagner measure which included public housing, slum clearance and rural housing provisions. This bill was shunted aside by the GOP leadership in the closing days of the extra session of the 80th Congress.

In his message to Congress, Mr. Truman had referred to the T-E-W bill as the bill which the country needs. Housing and anti-inflation topped the list of proposals the President offered in calling the Congress back for the session which ended last Saturday.

The GOP bill lacks public housing and slum clearance provisions. It provides chiefly for greater financial backing in the form of insurance for private construction.

Mr. Truman said Congress has "deliberately neglected those large groups of our people most in need of help."

Battle Tactics Are Discussed By Dixiecrats

Houston, Tex., Aug. 10.—(P)—States' rights Democrats met in Houston today to lay before Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina their battle tactics for the coming electoral college votes in the solid south.

Gov. Thurmond, flying here from Columbia, is to make his formal acceptance as the states' rights candidate for president at a rally here tomorrow.

His running mate, Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi as vice-presidential candidate, is expected to arrive early tomorrow by special train from Jackson.

Meanwhile, Texas Democrats were licking wounds yesterday at Austin, the state capital.

The state Democratic executive committee certified the names of Truman and Barkley as party nominees for president and vice-president over Dixiecrats, and rejected a Dixiecrat demand that it submit a referendum on the Thurmond-Truman issue to party voters in the Aug. 28 primary.

Hershey, Aug. 10.—(P)—Pennsylvania Republican chieftains held their first formal meeting here last night to shape GOP battle plans for the November election campaign.

"We discussed the over-all national campaign and went over the whole picture in Pennsylvania," Gov. James H. Duff disclosed after a dinner meeting at the Hotel Hershey.

Duff refused, however, to comment on the topics under discussion, and added that the gathering was "just a preliminary talk to discuss the campaign."

The meeting was the first formal gathering of the state's leading Republicans since a split over the issue of the Republican presidential nomination at the June GOP convention in Philadelphia.

At that time, Duff and U. S. Sen. Edward Martin were at odds over the presidential choice. Duff supported U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, while Martin was the first leading figure to join the bandwagon of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey at the convention.

Since that time, however, Duff has pledged full support of Dewey and has promised to take an active part in the drive to capture Pennsylvania's 35 electoral votes for Dewey.

Uniontown, Aug. 10.—(P)—Fourteen firemen were thrown into the water yesterday when a boat sank during an effort to recover the body of a drowned man.

The firemen, from Uniontown and Farmington, had improvised a raft between two boats to hold the equipment of a professional diver seeking the body of Frank Schultz, 52, of Confluence, who drowned yesterday.

One of the boats sank, throwing the entire crew into 30 feet of water, 100 feet off shore. The men swam to safety.

Orders Being Drafted For Milk Prices

Harrisburg, Aug. 10.—(P)—The State Milk Control Commission is going ahead with drafting orders to boost retail milk prices 1 1/2 cents a quart for the remainder of the year.

Snyder said today that he and Charles J. O'Loughlin, the other majority member, are standing firm against any additional increase in milk prices on Oct. 1.

Producers and dealers had requested the majority to hike prices for the last three months of 1947 beyond the 21 1/2 and 22 cents level now being considered for about Aug. 18.

The majority commissioners, who broke with Chairman H. N. Cobb last week on the price question, are now at work on the new orders.

Before they can be completely drafted, however, the milk control law requires that "findings of fact"—legal justification for price changes—must be prepared. Such findings are based on testimony presented at hearings on the cost of production and distribution.

State law requires new orders to be posted at least six days before they become effective. The orders would have had to be posted by the commission by midnight last night to have made the hoped for effective date.

The 1 1/2 cent boost was proposed last week by the majority of the members of the commission. The dairy industry urged a 2 1/2 cents increase.

Commissioner John J. Snyder said that "differences" over provision in the orders for some of the milk marketing areas were causing the delay in their preparation. He declined to elaborate.

State College, Aug. 10.—(P)—Judging and demonstration contests were opened here today by 1100 Pennsylvania farm youths attending the 24th annual 4-H Club week.

More than 400 boys and girls in agricultural clubs engaged in poultry, dairy and livestock judging contests, while girls in home-maker club competed in home economics contests.

Meanwhile, J. M. Fry, state director of the agricultural and home economics extension service, announced that more state farm youths are enrolled in 4-H Club work than ever before.

Membership for all counties, he said, may reach or exceed 22,000 as compared to 20,603 for 1947. This is the second year in a row to show a big gain for 4-H, Fry added.

Club members now have 24,941 projects, 12 per cent more than in 1947, he disclosed.

Dear Lyman E. Jackson, of the school of agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College, told the young delegates in a welcoming address last night that club work "is helping to prepare you for more responsible roles of leadership."

Dr. Greer Is Badly Hurt In Auto Accident

Rev. Dr. Charles T. Greer, superintendent of the Jamestown district of the Methodist church, and former pastor at Warren, was seriously injured in an automobile accident yesterday about noon on the Sherman-Westfield road near Shinglehouse.

Dr. Greer is in WCA Hospital at Jamestown, suffering from a broken hip, fractured ribs, lacerations and bruises. His condition is described to be as good as could be expected. He will be moved to Hamot Hospital in Erie as soon as his condition permits, probably tomorrow or Thursday. Wiggers, also a patient in WCA Hospital, sustained a possible fracture of the jaw.

Dr. Greer was enroute to Erie at the time of the crash and was traveling west on the Nettie Hill road. The Wiggers car was proceeding north on the Sherman-Westfield road. Damage to the vehicles is not known.

The present Methodist church in Warren was built during Dr. Greer's pastorate here. He served the local church for nine years, from 1933 to 1942. Mrs. Greer is also a patient in Hamot Hospital at the present time.

WOMAN SECRETARY OF PA. DEM. COMMITTEE

Harrisburg, Aug. 10.—(P)—Miss Genevieve Blatt, of Pittsburgh, is the first woman ever to be named secretary of the state Democratic committee.

She was appointed to the post yesterday by Philip Mathews, Democratic chairman. The place has been vacant since the resignation earlier this year of Jackson E. Scari, of Allentown.

Mystery Witness Unveiled

Alexander Koral, so-called "mystery man" of the House Un-American Activities Committee's spy inquiry, begins his testimony before the committee in Washington. Acting committee chairman Karl Mundt, R. Two Mountain Climbers Are Killed By Lightning in Cave

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—(P)—Two California mountain climbers died and two others were burned seriously Wednesday when lightning from a sudden storm struck a cave in which they were huddled high on an 11,500-foot peak in the Canadian Rockies.

News of the tragedy came to light last night with a telephoned report to The Associated Press office here from a member of the hiking party who did not attempt the climb.

Dead were Rolf Fundt, of Berkeley, and Bob Becker, of Los Gatos. Recovering from second and third degree burns in a Cranbrook, B. C. hospital, were Ann Strong, Berkeley, and Ian MacKinlay, of San Francisco.

The report was made by John Thune, physical education director of the Oakland Y.M.C.A. and one of a party of 18 climbing in the Bugaboo Range near Spillamachene, B. C.

This was Thune's account: Fundt, Becker, Mac Kinlay and Miss Strong tackled Bugaboo Suire Wednesday and reached a small cave near the top.

They took refuge there when falling snow made the rocks icy. As they huddled in the cave the lightning struck. All were knocked unconscious.

When Mac Kinlay came to, he told Thune, he saw Fundt twisting in convulsions. As the barely conscious Mac Kinlay watched, Fundt withered over the edge of the cliff outside the cave and dropped 1,000 feet to his death.

Becker was partially paralyzed and semi-conscious. Mac Kinlay (Turn to Page Three)

Record Crop Season Report Is Readied By Government

Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—The government readied a progress report today on a crop season that looks as though it will put more foodstuff into harvest bins than ever before in history.

Major interest in the report centered on corn—the major raw material for meats, dairy products and poultry. A month ago, the Agriculture Department predicted this crop would be the largest of record. Today's corn estimate seemed likely to be higher than previously forecast.

A record corn crop is expected to help bring lower retail meat, milk, butter, eggs and poultry prices next year. Prices of these food items are at or close to record levels now because last year's corn crop was a near failure. As a result farmers were forced to curtail production.

A big corn crop—with accompanying lower grain prices—would encourage farmers to expand livestock output again. Under normal conditions, this increased production should begin to show up in lower retail prices next spring.

A month ago the department forecast corn at 3,328,862,000 bushels. This topped the 1946 record of 3,249,950,000. The weather has been so favorable since then that experts would not be surprised if today's estimate were close to 3,450,000,000.

Few Speeches On Dewey's Schedule

Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was described by friends today as so confident of election victory he may make fewer than 10 major campaign speeches.

The Republican campaign course will not be fixed finally until an Albany meeting next week with Gov. Earl Warren of California, Dewey's running mate.

But the signs now point to a sharp contrast between the GOP nominee's carefully-paced big November stop speaking drive planned for President Truman by the Democratic national committee.

If early plans hold, friends said Dewey may make one long campaign tour by train. After that he may fly to fill individual speaking dates, returning to Albany after each.

TALKS STILL BOGGED DOWN OVER ISSUES

Russians Said to Have Ordered German Rail Officials to Stand By For Resumption

NEW MEETING HINTED

Berlin, Aug. 10.—(P)—Vague rumors that the Russians were about to lift the Berlin blockade by opening the railroad to the west were discounted today.

While Berliners awaited results of meetings of the three western envoys with Foreign Minister Molotov in the Kremlin, responsible British government sources said the talks still are bogged down over what should be done to achieve an immediate settlement in Berlin.

W. T. Babcock, U. S. deputy commander in Berlin, said he had heard from a usually "fairly accurate" German source that the Russians have ordered German rail officials to stand by for possible reopening of the railway.

The Russians closed the railway in June for what they said were technical difficulties. The western powers called this a fraud.

Informed British government sources in London said Russian Foreign Minister Molotov gave the western diplomats a plan for solving the currency dispute in Berlin and indicated its acceptance would bring about a lifting of the blockade. It was Molotov's third session in a week with the diplomats. He raised objections last Friday to a Berlin settlement plan advanced by the west, the British informants said.

Reports from Moscow indicated the envoys would meet today for the fourth time shortly. The Moscow radio urged closer collaboration between Russia and the United States.

A Russian-sponsored unit crowded the regular city government food administration out of the city in the Soviet zone today. It seemed probable the city's food administration would be established in the western part of Berlin.

Berlin already has divided police forces for the east and west sectors and rival trade union federations are divided along east-west lines.

In Moscow, American, British and French envoys went to work last night on reports to their home governments following another three hour talk with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. They were believed to have heard Russian views on proposals for negotiating east-west differences on Germany and perhaps all Europe.

An authoritative source in the Soviet capital acknowledged that there might be at least one more (Turn to Page Three)

Strike Dispute In Dayton Is Settled

Dayton, O., Aug. 10.—(P)—Peace came to the strike-troubled plant of the Univis Lens Co. today after more than three months of negotiations, picket line violence, court battles and National Guard intervention.

Striking CIO United Electrical Workers were back at their jobs this morning after last night's vote by Local 768 to accept a proposal ending the strike. The vote was unanimous.

Provisions of the proposal accepted by the UEW included: That rehiring of the 11 strikers accused by the company of "law violations" be put to mediation; the company and union agree to abide by a National Labor Relations board ruling on an election in which Univis employees reject the local as the bargaining agent and the immediate end of picketing and violence.

Returning strikers would be entitled to an 11-cent-an-hour pay raise granted on July 27, and would receive the jobs they held before the strike.

Ex-Justice Takes University Post

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—(P)—With the selection of Owen J. Roberts as dean of its law school, the University of Pennsylvania tapped a leading public figure for a high administrative post for the second time in less than two weeks.

Pennsylvania announced appointment of the 73-year-old former associate justice of the U. S. supreme court yesterday. He will assume his new post September 1 when the resignation of Earl G. Harrison becomes effective.

On July 29 the university chose Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, as its new president. Stassen is expected to take up his duties here at the beginning of the fall term.

West Branch, Ia., Aug. 10.—(P)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today there are "fuzzy-minded people" in this country who "never have understood and never will understand what the word America means," but added:

"This new land with all its high promise cannot and will not be conquered except by men inspired from the concepts of free spirit. It is those moral and spiritual qualities in free men which fulfill the meaning of the word American. And with them will come centuries of further greatness to our country."

Hoover's remarks were in an address prepared for a homecoming 74th birthday celebration and broadcast over the Mutual Broadcasting System. The speech was titled "The Meaning of America."

A fried chicken picnic lunch, a parade and presentation to Hoover of an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Coe College were other highlights of the celebration in this small Quaker community.

The only living ex-president, born in a two-room cottage, reminisced at length on his long public life and summed it up in these words:

"I have had every honor to which any man could aspire. There is no place on the whole earth except here in America where all the sons of man could have this chance in life."

New 40-Story Building In Golden Triangle Is Planned

Pittsburgh, Aug. 10.—(P)—Plans to erect a jointly-owned building to cover a block of the Golden Triangle were announced yesterday by the Mellon National Bank and Trust Co. and the U. S. Steel Corporation of Delaware.

A semi-official source said the building would be about 40 stories. No cost figures were mentioned.

The firms said execution of the plan would hang on "development of adequate traffic and parking facilities" and that the erection date will depend on "the future trend of construction costs."

Mayor David L. Lawrence said the city and its Parking Authority will aid in every way to facilitate the venture.

The block, bounded by Fifth Avenue, Smithfield street, Oliver Avenue and Will Penn Place, includes the present Mellon Bank and several other buildings. The bank would be left standing and the new structure built around it. All other buildings would be razed, including the nine-story Hotel Henry.

Lower floors of the skyscraper would be used for banking offices, upper floors as headquarters for U. S. Steel and its subsidiaries, most of which scattered in various buildings about the city.

One of the boats sank, throwing the entire crew into 30 feet of water, 100 feet off shore. The men swam to safety.

Waynesburg, Aug. 10—(P)—Physicians at Green county hospital continued their efforts today to find a cure for the hiccups that have worn Pauline Lucas down from 129 pounds to 78 in the last 170 days.

Miss Lucas, 31-year-old clerk, started hiccuping Feb. 23. Part of the time she hiccups 75 times a minute with the rate slowing down occasionally to 10 or 15.

Doctors have tried medicinals and anaesthesia while the dark-haired victim has herself attempted most of the old home cures—holding her breath, a knife placed under a glass, a sudden fright, but the hiccuping continued.

Her physician, Dr. A. J. Blair, said Miss Lucas' greatest relief came through the use of anaesthesia.

HOUSING BILL
SIGNED WITH
BLAST AT GOP*Chief Executive Scores Congress for "Neglect" In Not Providing Adequate Measure*PROVIDES SOME HELP

Washington, Aug. 10—(P)—President Truman signed the housing bill into law today with a blast at the Republican-controlled congress for "deliberate neglect" of people most in need of adequate living quarters.

Mr. Truman said the measure falls "far short of the legislation which could and should have been enacted." He said in a statement that he was signing the bill because it would be "of some help" in meeting the critical housing shortage.

The President accused the House Republican leaders of blocking consideration of another bill which would have provided "decent housing" for millions of families.

Mr. Truman referred to the Taft-Ellender-Wagner measure which included public housing, slum clearance and rural housing provisions. This bill was shelved in the closing days of the extra session of the 80th Congress.

In his message to Congress, Mr. Truman had referred to the T-E-W bill as the bill which the country needs. Housing and anti-inflation topped the list of proposals the President offered in calling the Congress back for the session which ended last Saturday.

The GOP bill lacks public housing and slum clearance provisions. It provides chiefly for greater financial backing in the form of insurance for private construction.

Mr. Truman said Congress has "deliberately neglected those large groups of our people most in (Turn to Page Three)

Battle Tactics
Are Discussed
By Dixiecrats

Miami, Fla., Aug. 10—(P)—The government has dropped its charges against Jack Dietsch, 31, Corry, Pa., and Mrs. Marguerite Wagner, 31, West Palm Beach.

They had been accused of transporting stolen goods across state lines. Fred Botts, assistant district attorney, said these charges were dropped to allow Dietsch to be returned to Paynesville, O., to face charges of breaking parole.

Dietsch will be returned to the Ohio city to complete a one to 15 year prison term which had been imposed for breaking and entering. In addition, said Botts, Dietsch is wanted in Cleveland.

Mrs. Wagner went free when the charges here were permitted to lapse.

His running mate, Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi as vice-presidential candidate, is expected to arrive early tomorrow by special train from Jackson.

Meanwhile, Texas Democrats were licking wounds yesterday at Austin, the state capital.

The state Democratic executive committee certified the names of Truman and Barkley as party nominees for president and vice-president over protests of the Dixiecrats and rejected a Dixiecrat demand that it submit a referendum on the Thurmond-Truman issue to party voters in the Aug. 28 primary.

State Republican Chiefs In Parley

Hershey, Aug. 10—(P)—Pennsylvania Republican chiefs held their first formal meeting here last night to shape GOP battle plans for the November election campaign.

We discussed the over-all national campaign and went over the whole picture in Pennsylvania," Gov. James H. Duff disclosed after a dinner meeting at the Hotel Hershey.

Duff refused, however, to comment on the topics under discussion, and added that the gathering was "just a preliminary talk to discuss the campaign."

The meeting was the first formal gathering of the state's leading Republicans since a split over the issue of the Republican presidential nomination at the June GOP convention in Philadelphia.

At that time, Duff and U. S. Sen. Edward Martin were at odds over the presidential choice. Duff supported U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, while Martin was the first leading figure to join the bandwagon of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey at the convention.

Since that time, however, Duff has pledged full support of Dewey and has promised to take an active part in the drive to capture Pennsylvania's 35 electoral votes.

WOMAN SECRETARY OF PA. DEM. COMMITTEE

Harrisburg, Aug. 10—(P)—Miss Genevieve Blatt, of Pittsburgh, is the first woman ever to be named secretary of the state Democratic committee.

She was appointed to the post yesterday by Philip Mathews, Democratic chairman. The place has been vacant since the resignation earlier this year of Jackson E. Searl, of Allentown.

Allied Envoys Reported Studying
Molotov Plan For Solving Dispute*Orders Being Drafted For Milk Prices

Harrisburg, Aug. 10—(P)—The State Milk Control Commission is going ahead with drafting orders to boost retail milk prices 1 1/2 cents a quart for the remainder of the year, Commissioner John J. Snyder said today.

Snyder said that he and Charles J. O'Loughlin, the other majority member, are standing firm against any additional increase in milk prices on Oct. 1.

Producers and dealers had requested the majority to hike prices for the last three months of 1948 beyond the 21 1/2 and 22 cents level now being considered for about Aug. 18.

The majority commissioners, who broke with Chairman H. N. Cobb last week on the price question, are now at work on the new orders.

Before they can be completely drafted, however, the milk control law requires that "findings of fact"—legal justification for price changes—must be prepared. Such findings are based on testimony presented at hearings on the cost of production and distribution.

State law requires new orders to be posted at least six days before they become effective. The orders would have had to be posted by the commission by midnight last night to have made the hoped for effective date.

The 1 1/2 cent boost was proposed last week by the majority of the members of the commission. The dairy industry urged a 2 1/2 cents a quart increase.

Commissioner John J. Snyder said that "differences" over provision in the orders for some of the milk marketing areas were causing the delay in their preparation. He declined to elaborate.

4-H Youths Start
Judging Contests

State College, Aug. 10—(P)—Judging and demonstration contests were opened here today by 1100 Pennsylvania farm youths attending the 24th annual 4-H Club week.

More than 400 boys and girls in agricultural clubs engaged in poultry, dairy and livestock judging contests, while girls in home-maker club competed in home economics contests.

Meanwhile, J. M. Fry, state director of the agricultural and home economics extension service, announced that more state farm youths are enrolled in 4-H Club work than ever before.

Membership for all counties, he said, may reach or exceed 22,000 as compared to 20,603 for 1947. This is the second year in a row to show a big gain for 4-H, Fry added.

Club members now have 24,941 projects, 12 per cent more than in 1947, he disclosed.

Dean Lyman E. Jackson, of the school of agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College, told the young delegates in a welcoming address last night that club work "is helping to prepare you for more responsible roles of leadership."

Dr. Greer Is Badly Hurt In Auto Accident

Rev. Dr. Charles T. Greer, superintendent of the Westtown district of the Methodist church, and former pastor at Warren, was seriously injured in an automobile accident yesterday about noon on the Sherman-Westfield road near Sherman, when his car collided with another driven by Paul Wiggers, of North Clymer, N. Y.

Dr. Greer is in WCA Hospital at Jamestown, suffering from a broken hip, fractured ribs, lacerations and bruises. His condition is described to be as good as could be expected. He will be moved to Hamot Hospital in Erie as soon as his condition permits, probably tomorrow or Thursday. Wiggers, also a patient in WCA Hospital, sustained a possible fracture of the jaw.

Dr. Greer was enroute to Erie at the time of the crash and was traveling west on the Nettle Hill road. The Wiggers car was proceeding north on the Sherman-Westfield road. Damage to the vehicles is not known.

The present Methodist church in Warren was built during Dr. Greer's pastorate here. He served the local church for nine years, from 1923 to 1932. Mrs. Greer is also a patient in Hamot Hospital at the present time.

Few Speeches On Dewey's Schedule

Washington, Aug. 10—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was described by friends today as so confident of election victory he may make fewer than 10 major campaign speeches.

The Republican campaign course will not be fixed finally until an Albany meeting next week with Gov. Earl Warren of California, Dewey's running mate.

But the signs now point to a sharp contrast between the GOP nominee's carefully-paced bid for November support and the sort of whistle stop speaking drive planned for President Truman by the Democratic national committee.

If early plans jell, friends said Dewey may make one long campaign tour by train. After that he may fly to fill individual speaking dates, returning to Albany after each.

Mystery Witness Unveiled

Alexander Korol, so-called "mystery man" of the House Un-American Activities Committee's spy inquiry, begins his testimony before the committee in Washington. Acting committee chairman Karl Mundt, R., S. D., had predicted that Korol's testimony would "break" the spy ring case. Seated beside the witness is attorney Joseph Foret, who filled in when Korol's regular counsel was late in arriving.

Two Mountain Climbers Are Killed By Lightning in Cave

San Francisco, Aug. 10—(P)—Two California mountain climbers died and two others were burned seriously Wednesday when lightning from a sudden storm struck a cave in which they were huddled high on an 11,500-foot peak in the Canadian Rockies.

News of the tragedy came to light last night with a telephoned report to The Associated Press office here from a member of the hiking party who did not attempt the climb.

Dead were Rolf Pundt, of Berkeley, and Bob Becker, of Los Gatos. Recovering from second and third degree burns in a Cranbrook, B. C. hospital were Ann Strong, Berkeley, and Ian MacKinlay, of San Francisco.

The report was made by John Thune, physical education director of the Oakland Y.M.C.A. and one of a party of 18 climbing in the Bugaboo Range near Spillamachean, B. C.

This was Thune's account: Pundt, Becker, Mac Kinlay and Miss Strong tackled Bugaboo Suire Wednesday and reached a small cave near the top.

They took refuge there when falling snow made the rocks icy. As they huddled in the cave the lightning struck. All were knocked unconscious.

When Mac Kinlay came to, he told Thune, he saw Pundt twisting in convulsions. As the barely conscious Mac Kinlay watched, Pundt withered under the edge of the cliff outside the cave and dropped 1,000 feet to his death.

Becker was partially paralyzed and semi-conscious. Mac Kinlay (Turn to Page Three)

Record Crop Season Report Is Readied By Government

Washington, Aug. 10—(P)—The government readied a progress report today on a crop season that looks as though it will put more foodstuffs into harvest bins than ever before in history.

Major interest in the report centered on corn—the major raw material for meats, dairy products and poultry. A month ago, the Agriculture Department predicted this crop would be the largest of record.

Today's corn estimate seemed likely to be higher than previously forecast.

A record corn crop is expected to help bring lower retail meat, milk, butter, eggs and poultry prices next year. Prices of these food items are at or close to record levels now because last year's corn crop was a near failure. As a result farmers were forced to curtail production.

A big corn crop—with accompanying lower grain prices—would encourage farmers to expand livestock output again. Under normal conditions, this increased production should begin to show up in lower retail prices next spring.

A month ago the department forecast corn at 3,328,862,000 bushels. This topped the 1946 record of 3,249,950,000. The weather has been so favorable since then that experts would not be surprised if today's estimate were close to 3,450,000,000.

Ex-Justice Takes University Post

Philadelphia, Aug. 10—(P)—With the selection of Owen J. Roberts as dean of its law school, the University of Pennsylvania tapped a leading public figure for a high administrative post for the second time, in less than two weeks.

Pennsylvania announced appointment of the 73-year-old former associate justice of the U. S. supreme court yesterday. He will assume his new post September 1 when the resignation of Earl G. Harrison becomes effective.

On July 29 the university chose Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, as its new president. Stassen is expected to take up his duties here at the beginning of the fall term.

Hoover Is Celebration Guest

West Branch, Ia., Aug. 10—(P)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today there are "fuzzy-minded people" in this country who "never have understood and never will understand what the word America means," but added:

TALKS STILL BOGGED DOWN
OVER ISSUES*Russians Said to Have Ordered German Rail Officials to Stand By For Resumption*NEW MEETING HINTED

Berlin, Aug. 10—(P)—Vague rumors that the Russians were about to lift the Berlin blockade by opening the railroad to the west were discounted today.

While Berliners awaited results of meetings of the three western envoys with Foreign Minister Molotov in the Kremlin, responsible British government sources said the talks still are bogged down over what should be done to achieve an immediate settlement in Berlin.

W. T. Babcock, U. S. deputy commander in Berlin, said he had heard from a usually "fairly accurate" German source that the Russians have ordered German rail officials to stand by for possible reopening of the railway.

The Russians closed the railway in June for what they said were technical difficulties. The western powers called this a fraud.

Informed British government sources in London said Russian Foreign Minister Molotov gave the currency diplomats a plan for solving the currency dispute in Berlin and indicated its acceptance would bring about a lifting of the blockade. It was Molotov's third session in a week with the diplomats. He raised objections last Friday to a Berlin settlement plan advanced by the west, the British information said.

Reports from Moscow indicated the envoys would see Molotov for the fourth time shortly. The Moscow radio urged closer collaboration between Russia and the United States.

A Russian-sponsored unit crowded the regular city government food administration out of the city hall in the Soviet zone today. It seemed probable the city's food administration would be established in the western part of Berlin.

Berlin already has divided police forces for the east and west sectors and rival trade union federations are divided along east-west lines.

In Moscow, American, British and French envoys went to work last night on reports to their home governments following another three hour talk with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. They were believed to have heard Russian views on proposals for negotiating east-west differences on Germany and perhaps all Europe.

An authoritative source in the Soviet capital acknowledged that there might be at least one more (Turn to Page Three)

Strike Dispute In Dayton Is Settled

Dayton, O., Aug. 10—(P)—Peace came to the strike-troubled plant of the Univis Lens Co. today after more than three months of negotiations, picket line violence, court battles and National Guard intervention.

Striking CIO United Electrical Workers were back at their jobs this morning after last night's vote by Local 768 to accept a proposal ending the strike. The vote was unanimous.

Provisions of the proposal accepted by the UEW included: That rehiring of the 11 strikers accused by the company of "law violations" be put to mediation; the company and union agree to abide by a National Labor Relations board ruling on an election in which Unis employees rejected the local as its bargaining agent, and the immediate end of picketing and violence.

Returning strikers would be entitled to an 11-cent-an-hour pay raise granted on July 27, and would receive the jobs they held before the strike.

Playgrounds Attendance Is Well Over 5,000 Past Week

Attendance at the borough playgrounds remained well over the 5,000 mark last week, even though the play spots were closed all day Thursday because of the rain.

The doll show was held on Wednesday at individual areas, with very successful finals at Beatty playground on Friday afternoon.

One of the big features for this week is the handcraft display being placed in the Penetec showroom, Liberty street. The exhibit will include projects from each playground and will be on display from August 11 to 18th.

Jackstones, croquet, rope-skipping and hop scotch tournaments have been completed and a number of final events are listed for this week. Foul-shooting competition is under way today at the West Side area; the horseshoe tournament occupies the first two mornings of this week, with singles and dou-

Naval Mobile Unit To Visit Nearby Fair

A U. S. Naval Mobile Exhibit, complete with displays of the weapons and secrets that won the naval war, will visit Chautauqua County Fair from Sept. 6 to Sept. 11. The display will be open to the public, without charge, from 1 until 9 p. m. each day while it is here. Movies will be shown every evening, and special entertainment is planned for the last evening. It is all free of charge.

Composed of four vans, a bus, and auxiliary vehicles including a power plant for the exhibit, the unit will occupy about 300 feet of parking space.

Among the displays in the unit is a complete radar installation, occupying two vans. In one of these is a Combat Intelligence Center mockup where spectators may view in actual operation the same type of radar now in use in ships of the fleet. The second van contains power and workroom units for the equipment.

Other vans contain up-to-date Navy ordnance equipment, one of the newest Navy rocket motors, a replica of a floating drydock, an animated fire-control exhibit, and many other animated and spectator-participation displays.

The exhibit is accompanied by 20 enlisted men and 2 officers under command of Commander J. J. Morgan, USNR. At all times while the exhibit is open, it will be manned by trained instructors ready to demonstrate to spectators the working of all displays. In a six month tour of the southeast last year, the exhibit attracted more than 300,000 visitors in 40 cities.

This year's tour of the exhibit will take it to a total of 18 cities in the northeast.

Large Purse Given Victims Of Barn Fire

Lander, Aug. 10—A community party was held in the Lander Grange Hall Saturday evening and was brought to a happy conclusion with the presentation of a purse of money to Mr. and Mrs. Otis White, whose barn was completely destroyed when it was struck by lightning recently. The purse amounted to $703.20.

Mr. and Mrs. White have purchased the Wald Crist farm near Busti and will move there the middle of this month.

Dancing was enjoyed, with music furnished by Mrs. Verner Bloomquist and Mrs. Clifton Pangborn.

Refreshments served by a committee brought the affair to a very successful conclusion.

Outstanding Quartet Feted Here Sunday

Members of one of America's top-ranking barbershop harmony organizations, The Westinghouse Quartet, with their wives, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chadda, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chadda, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hanson and William McDowell, found a couple of free days in their very busy schedule and came to Warren for this brief vacation.

On Saturday evening, the Lewis Catering Service served a delicious chicken "barbecue" for the Westinghouses and the Every Knights. Well known local quartet composed of Bill Duff, Art McDonald, "Stu" Nelson and Howie Johnson.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Duff entertained some 60 guests for an evening filled with close harmony.

The Westinghouse Quartet is currently the fourth ranking barbershop quartet in the country, as determined in the recent nationwide contest at Oklahoma City and has been outstanding among musical groups of the east for several seasons.

Many local friends will remember the Westinghouse four from their appearance at the charter presentation of the Warren Barbershop Singing Society last fall.

Playgrounds Attendance Is Well Over 5,000 Past Week

Attendance at the borough playgrounds remained well over the 5,000 mark last week, even though the play spots were closed all day Thursday because of the rain.

The doll show was held on Wednesday at individual areas, with very successful results at Beatty playground on Friday afternoon.

One of the big features for this week is the handcraft display being placed in the Penelco showroom, Liberty street. The exhibit will include projects from each playground and will be on display from August 11 to 18th.

Jackstones, croquet, rope-skipping and hop scotch tournaments have been completed and a number of final events are listed for this week. Four-shooting competition is under way today at the West Side area; the horseshoe tournament occupies the first three mornings of this week, with singles and dou-

Naval Mobile Unit To Visit Nearby Fair

A U. S. Naval Mobile Exhibit, complete with displays of the weapons and secrets that won the naval war, will visit Chautauqua County Fair from Sept. 6 to Sept. 11. The display will be open to the public, without charge, from 1 until 9 p. m. each day while it is here. Movies will be shown every evening, and special entertainment is planned for the last evening. It is all free of charge.

Composed of four vans, a bus and auxiliary vehicles including a power plant for the exhibit, the unit will occupy about 300 feet of parking space.

Among the displays in the unit is a complete radar installation, occupying two vans. In one of these is a Combat Intelligence Center mockup where spectators may view in actual operation the same type of radar now in use in ships of the fleet. The second van contains power and workroom units for the equipment.

Other vans contain up-to-date Navy ordnance equipment, one of the newest Navy rocket motors, a replica of a floating drydock, an animated fire-control exhibit, and many other animated and spectator-participation displays.

The exhibit is accompanied by 20 enlisted men and 2 officers under command of Commander J. J. Morgan, USNR. At all times while the exhibit is open, it will be manned by trained instructors ready to demonstrate to spectators the working of all displays.

In a six month tour of the southeast last year, the exhibit attracted more than 300,000 visitors in 40 cities.

This year's tour of the exhibit will take it to a total of 18 cities in the northeast.

Large Purse Given Victims Of Barn Fire

Lander, Aug. 10—A community party was held in the Lander Grange Hall Saturday evening and was brought to a happy conclusion with the presentation of a purse of money to Mr. and Mrs. Otis White, whose barn was completely destroyed when it was struck by lightning recently. The purse amounted to $703.20.

Mr. and Mrs. White have purchased the Wald Crist farm near Busti and will move there the middle of this month.

Dancing was enjoyed, with music furnished by Mrs. Verner Bloomquist and Mrs. Clifton Pangborn.

Refreshments served by a committee brought the affair to a very successful conclusion.

The Crown still owns more than 90 percent of Canada's forest areas.

ASTHMA

SUFFERERS FIND CURE FOR MISERY DUE TO ASTHMA ATTACKS. RUSHED HERE!

New hope for relief from asthma paroxysms is seen today in reports of success with a palliative formula which acts to relieve congestion. Men and women who formerly suffered with dread coughing, choking, wheezing asthma attacks now find blessed relief after using it. PROMETIN costs $2.00, but considering results, this is not expensive, amounts to only a few pennies per dose. (Caution—use only as directed.) SEEK PAY INCREASE

Chautauqua county employees will seek $400 to $500 annual pay increases to compensate for rises in the cost of living, as the result of the second meeting in four days by the salary committee of Chautauqua County Chapter Civil Service Employees Association. Four committee members appointed by Chairman Roy L. Stoelting plan to meet and discuss the matter with the personnel and finance committees for the board of supervisors before the next board meeting on August 13.

ERIE FOOD COSTS

Food costs in Erie are the highest in the state, it was revealed today by the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry, which reported prices have advanced 14.2 per cent over last year. York shares the spotlight with Erie for higher priced food among the larger cities in the state. According to the survey, Erie has an index of 228.4, while York has 225.1. The State Department disclosed that the price of food throughout the state is twice as much as it was at the beginning of World War II.

Outstanding Quartet Feted Here Sunday

Members of one of America's top-ranking barbershop harmony organizations, The Westinghouse Quartet, with their wives, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Duff at their summer home near Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chadda, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hanson and William McDowell, found a couple of free days in their very busy schedule and came to Warren for this brief vacation.

On Saturday evening, the Lewis Catering Service served a delicious chicken "barbecue" for the Westinghouses and the Every Knights, well known local quartet composed of Bill Duff, Art McDonald, "Stu" Nelson and Howie Johnson.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Duff entertained some 60 guests for an evening filled with close harmony.

The Westinghouse Quartet is currently the fourth ranking barbershop quartet in the country, as determined in the recent nationwide contest at Oklahoma City and has been outstanding among musical groups of the east for several seasons.

Many local friends will remember the Westinghouse four from their appearance at the charter presentation of the Warren Barbershop Singing Society last fall.

Add drained prepared horseradish, salt, sugar, freshly ground pepper and onion juice to whipped cream for a sauce to serve with cold ham or luncheon meat. This sauce is also delicious with cold salmon.

Examinations For Dragons Start Friday

Prospective Dragon football players will undergo their physical examinations on Friday when Dr. Lowe, school physician, will examine older members of the squad from 4:30 to 6 o'clock and new members from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. Coach J. B. Leidig announced this morning.

Mr. Leidig expects the squad to number between 140 and 150 when it comes time to issue equipment on Monday and Tuesday. Again the older members and newer members will be split into groups with the older players receiving their equipment at 7 o'clock Monday evening and the newer ones on Tuesday at the same hour.

Tomorrow, Coaches Leidig, Hutchings, Passaro and Briggs will leave for Edinboro for the annual coach's school session to be held there for the balance of the week. The school is under the direction of Stu Holcomb, of Purdue, with special instruction by Chas. Caldwell, of Princeton, and Buff Minelli, of Boston U.

Following classes the local coaches will attend the all star game at Erie Stadium on Friday evening at 8 o'clock when two squads of 25 players each, representing the pick of school-boy football players from 10 counties of northwestern Pennsylvania, will tangle there. Caldwell will coach the Erie county squad using the single wing and Donnell, expert of the wing-T formation, will direct the southern counties squad.

Jack Webb, Ponca City, Okla., rancher, used to amaze rodeo fans with trick riding and shooting. He's retired, but he keeps his eye with this stunt. His pet rifle is clamped to a converted typewriter stand, and a target is fastened to his hat. Then, a long string, careful sighting and—boom—that's all there is to it!

Reminder For Co. Veterans

Veterans of the county are reminded again that August 31, 1948, is the deadline for those who have not made application for terminal leave pay.

Veterans who are still interested in reinstating their National Service Life Insurance may still do so by taking the medical examination, and filing the proper forms. This examination would be at the veteran's expense.

Information and assistance is available to all veterans and their families under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States. Claims for all benefits may be filed at the office of the Director of Veterans' Affairs, which is now located at the Warren Court House, 2nd floor, hours 9 a. m. to 4:45 p. m., and until noon on Saturdays, telephone 3111.

Dramatic Picture Is Taken by Photographer

Tucson, Ariz., Aug. 10—(P)—A spectacular picture of John D. Anderson, chief criminal investigator of Pima county, falling to his death after rescuing a 15-year-old boy from a canyon ledge, was taken yesterday by Sam Levitz, staff photographer of the Arizona Daily Star.

Levitz kept an eleven hour vigil in Rocky Sabino canyon, 14 miles northeast of here, while rescue workers awaited daylight to reach Guy Rockefeller, Jr., who was stranded on an outcropping of rocks 450 feet above the canyon floor.

Taking a position across the canyon, just after daylight, Levitz was recording the rescue step-by-step when Anderson who had reached the youth and was proceeding to the canyon rim with Rockefeller, lost his hand hold on a rope and plunged approximately 1,000 feet to his death.

MRS. EMMA C. OLSEN

Sheffield, Aug. 10—Services for Mrs. Emma Charlotte Olson, widow of Adolph Olson, Jamestown, N. Y., and formerly of Sheffield, were held at the Henderson and Lincoln chapel in Jamestown last Wednesday. Rev. James L. Bensing, pastor of the Epworth Methodist church of that city, officiated and the following served as bearers for interment in Sunset Hill cemetery: Allison P. Olson, Robert V. Erickson, Daniel Lundquist, Aylor Olson, Everett and Kenneth Abramson.

Attending the services from Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Olson; from Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. Aylor Olson, Mrs. Jennie Lundgren, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Abramson, Miss Elizabeth Abramson, Bert Lyle, Mrs. William Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson, Miss Elsie Nelson, Miss Evelyn Norlin, Charles Norlin, Miss Agnes Lundquist, Mrs. C. G. McDowell, Miss Madeline Magnuson, and Mrs. Evelyn Gailor.

Mrs. Olson, 84 years old, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Richard N. Lindgren, 518 Windsor street, after an illness of several months. She was born in Eskilstuna, Sweden, and came to Sheffield in her youth, living here until 1913. Two other daughters survive, Mrs. Mildred Paulson, Ethelyn Pickard, Jamestown, N. Y.; two brothers, Charles F. Carlson, Syracuse, N. Y., and Gustav A. Carlson, Jamestown.

S. RUSSELL WILLIAMS

Services in memory of S. Russell Williams, 113 Columbia avenue, Meadville, were held from the Young Funeral Home in Youngsville at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, August 3, with Rev. Harold Lindquist, pastor of the Youngville Evangelical United Brethren church, officiating. Many relatives and friends were in attendance for the rites and interment, which took place in East Branch cemetery.

"Rusty," as he was best known, was born in New Castle August 7, 1905, the son of William D. and Mary Samuels Williams, and resided there until he and his brother, Paul, opened an auto body shop at North Warren in 1929. He had been employed by shops in Meadville for the past eight years and about three years ago opened his own shop under the name of "Rusty Williams' Auto Service" on Lincoln avenue.

He is survived by his wife, Vivian Pierce, and one son, Russell Elmer, at home, also one sister and five brothers: Mrs. George Schelein, Rochester, Pa., Thomas and John Williams, New Castle; William D. Williams, Beaver; Harold Williams, San Diego, Calif., and Paul Williams, Youngsville.

A MAN IN THE HOUSE

Chapter 1

IT was nearly in the fall when the rumors began. All was not moonlight and roses between Jane Whittier and her good-looking professor husband.

The rumors were baseless, for the most part, as small-town rumors often are. They were founded on envy as much as anything. They had been married three years and no one had been able to discern the tiniest rift between the Whittiers.

Carl was older than Jane, twenty-nine or thereabouts to her twenty-three. But this difference seemed just about right, just as everything about their marriage seemed right. When they appeared in public, invariably someone would whisper: "Aren't they the most ideal couple you ever saw?" And they were.

Jane had beauty, background, quite a little money of her own, and in addition she was a perfect darling.

Carl was a more quiet, even a grave type. He was much better-looking, much more attractive than you might expect a professor to be.

So there they were. Jane and Carl Whittier. Professor and Mrs. Whittier. Happy. Not a care in the world. And simply crazy about each other.

Jane was still idling dreamily in bed when the phone rang several moments later. Aunt Mae said that she was coming over in about half an hour, and if Jane had an appointment at the beauty parlor she'd just have to cancel it.

"I'm sorry to upset your plans, Jane dear, but what I have to say to you is more important than any hair wave. By the way, how is Carl?"

"Carl is fine," Jane said. "Just fine." She grinned as she cradled the receiver. That was Aunt Mae for you. Ordering Jane around as if she were still about three, the age she had been when Jane's parents had died, within a month of each other, and Aunt Mae, never one to shrink her duty, had moved over to the Markell home to take over the job of raising Jane.

When Aunt Mae arrived, thirty minutes later, Jane was dressed and down in the kitchen making coffee.

She sat down at the kitchen table, took a bit of flannel from her bag, wiped her gold-rimmed glasses, then fitted them carefully back in place.

Aunt Mae said now: "Are you worrying about anything?"

Jane brought the coffee pot over to the table. "Now, darling," she smiled at Aunt Mae, "what would I be worrying over? Don't you know I haven't a care in the world? Don't you know I'm the happiest girl alive? Incidentally, this is our third anniversary—Carl's and mine."

REPORT ON UNITED NATIONS

The annual report of Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations is a pointed reminder of what has happened in the last three years to our wartime hopes of world disarmament and universal cooperation for peace and economic stability.

His reference to the race for production of chemical and bacteriological weapons seeks to focus attention on a field whose prospects, in case of war, are as "scary" as the atomic bomb.

Make peace, the U. N. leader urges, and put these weapons under control before mankind is visited with new horror.

Compromises, he suggests. Recognize that the world is not going to accept any one economic system, whether it be Russian or American. The old nationalists of the west and the new nationalists of the east can adjust themselves peacefully to each other, he insists.

Ideological competition, he says, can be kept within bounds provided no group tries to impose its will by force or threat of force.

In the opinion of J. M. Roberts, Jr., Associated Press foreign affairs analyst, Mr. Lie thus approaches peace from the only angle from which it can be approached. Peace will make for disarmament, but there is no slightest indication now that disarmament will make peace. While Soviet Russia strengthens herself for open competition with the west, the democracies have dissipated their military power. Only recently have they begun to realize the danger in such a program. Rearmament is under way, with every indication that, until a better balance has been restored, Communist expansionism will not check its drive in favor of compromise.

The United Nations Commissions charged with fostering disarmament have thrown up their hands in despair. The Atomic Energy Commission, also designed to control other mass destruction weapons, long ago recognized that, pending peace between the great powers, its efforts are futile. The conventional arms commission has reached the same conclusion.

Instead of expending further effort on obtaining controls, the United States is out to maintain and expand its preeminence in destruction.

There is little question that this arms race is responsible for much of today's international tension. Yet it seems required if Russia is to be brought to the point of diminishing returns, and therefore to the point of compromise on her aspirations. The purpose of the current negotiations in Moscow is to see if she can be brought to that point through reason rather than through the ultimate display of force. But the odds are that the Allies will have to go right ahead with preparedness before anything real can be accomplished.

HOME BUILDING RECORD IS GOOD

Somewhere in the United States the two millionth post-war home is being completed about now. Melvin H. Baker, a spokesman for the construction industry, considers this "a truly remarkable performance in view of the dislocated and shut-down condition of the industry at the end of the war."

In 1947, the Construction Industry Information Committee says, 849,000 homes were started and 831,700 were completed. Completions were only 17,000 under the number for 1926.

We share in Mr. Baker's pride in that achievement. It is distinctly to the credit of an industry that has been harassed by many obstacles. So we suggest that, big as it is, the achievement still does not meet the nation's pressing needs.

Go right along building a million new homes every year, and it will be fifteen or twenty years before we get one home for each American family.

Today hundreds of thousands of families are living in slum and semi-slum homes not because they can't pay for decent quarters, but because our great nation does not possess enough passable housing for all who, some way, would manage to pay for it.

By all means let's take pride and give credit to builders for reaching the million home a year pace. But let's remember that even that isn't enough to give every family a home to which children not yet in school will be able to take their brides.

Attendance at Warren's playgrounds continues to set new records, emphasizing the farsighted wisdom displayed by those responsible for these popular recreation spots.

It may be all right to put a little fire in the furnace coil nights, but it may be just as well to leave the flannels in moth balls for a while.

And No Hitting Below the Belt

Don't overlook that big triple action program scheduled at the Warren State Hospital diamond Saturday afternoon when the annual Old Times' entertainment will be staged as a benefit for the Kivans Club Crippled Children's fund. This will include an abbreviated baseball game between Warren old timers and a regular nine-inning contest featuring the National Workers and their personal rivals, the Corry Merchants, with Nick Altrock, famous Washington Senators' coach and baseball down of international renown, as a special added attraction. Altrock is a show in himself, we can assure you of that, having had the pleasure of seeing him in this particular role on numerous occasions. Nick, who must be crowding 72 years, has been in the baseball line for almost fifty years. Press-day fans will be surprised to learn that Altrock was one of the game's best left-handed pitchers. When the littlest wonders, as the Chicago White Sox were known in 1908, won the American League championship Nick was a regular. He captured 20 and lost 18 games, rating second to Doc White, who had 12 victories and six defeats. Nick's best record was made in Milwaukee in 1902 when he won 19 and lost eight for a club that finished seventh. Four years before he won 17 out of 19 for Grand Rapids, a team that was only one step removed from the cellar. On one occasion he struck out 19 men. That happened when he was pitching for Nicholasville, Ky., against Danville, in the Blue Grass League. He was also a great fielder. In an American League game in 1906 he had 11 assists and two putouts against the Athletics and in the first game of the World Series that autumn he accepted nine fielding chances. After he was finished as an active participant Altrock was taken on by Washington as a coach. He developed an act of clowning that is the funniest thing known in baseball. Fans all over the country enjoy Nick's antics before a game. He can do more one-handed tricks with a first baseman's mitt than most fellows can do with both hands. Don't miss seeing Nick. He's a scream.

Down at Enterprise in the southwestern end of the county, plans are going forward for the annual Old Home Day celebration to be held in the Methodist church Wednesday. Dinner will be served at six o'clock. Later in the evening a program under the direction of the ladies of the community will be presented. The ladies are sponsoring a banner and there will also be refreshment stands. The proceeds will go to the church to help in carrying on its work. All former and present residents are urged to attend.

Over in Titusville an exhibit of articles in wrought iron made by A. C. Westman, of Wrightsville, is attracting considerable attention in the window of the S. P. Bokstrom store on North Franklin street.

This and That: Corry's Cootie contingent, Pup Tent No. 62, realized approximately $200 on the Donkey Ball game played there recently. At Old City officers of Older Pup Tent, No. 37, have announced that the Donkey Ball game played on Sunday afternoon will be rescheduled. Stalls and tickets will not be redeemed but will be honored on the future date. Approximately 1,000 persons were on hand Sunday when only one inning of the game was played. We learn that Mrs. Walter Nowhouse and Mrs. Earl Wheeler did yeoman duty at the Bear Lake fire a week ago, preparing and serving hot coffee and doughnuts to the fire fighters who were very much appreciated. Don't overlook Sunday, September 13, date set for the annual field day of the Warren Field and Stream Club, at Wilder Field, Irvine. They have a whole of a program and a record crowd is certain to attend. Local radio listeners, who heard just a portion of a news broadcast Sunday telling of the incident at Youngstown, Pa., when two law officers were killed before their slayer was shot down by a state policeman, started false rumors in the borough when they placed the shooting at "Youngsville."

REPORT ON UNITED NATIONS

The annual report of Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations is a pointed reminder of what has happened in the last three years to our wartime hopes of world disarmament and universal cooperation for peace and economic stability.

His reference to the race for production of chemical and bacteriological weapons seeks to focus attention on a field whose prospects, in case of war, are as "scary" as the atomic bomb.

Make peace, the U. N. leader urges, and put these weapons under control before mankind is visited with new horror.

Compromises, he suggests. Recognize that the world is not going to accept any one economic system, whether it be Russian or American. The old nationalists of the west and the new nationalists of the east can adjust themselves peacefully to each other, he insists.

Ideological competition, he says, can be kept within bounds provided no group tries to impose its will by force or threat of force.

In the opinion of J. M. Roberts, Jr., Associated Press foreign affairs analyst, Mr. Lie thus approaches peace from the only angle from which it can be approached. Peace will make for disarmament, but there is no slightest indication now that disarmament will make peace. While Soviet Russia strengthens herself for open competition with the west, the democracies have dissipated their military power. Only recently have they begun to realize the danger in such a program. Rearmament is under way, with every indication that, until a better balance has been restored, Communist expansionism will not check its drive in favor of compromise.

The United Nations Commissions charged with fostering disarmament have thrown up their hands in despair. The Atomic Energy Commission, also designed to control other mass destruction weapons, long ago recognized that, pending peace between the great powers, its efforts are futile. The conventional arms commission has reached the same conclusion.

Instead of expending further effort on obtaining controls, the United States is out to maintain and expand its preeminence in destruction.

There is little question that this arms race is responsible for much of today's international tension. Yet it seems required if Russia is to be brought to the point of diminishing returns, and therefore to the point of compromise on her aspirations. The purpose of the current negotiations in Moscow is to see if she can be brought to that point through reason rather than through the ultimate display of force. But the odds are that the Allies will have to go right ahead with preparedness before anything real can be accomplished.

HOME BUILDING RECORD IS GOOD

Somewhere in the United States the two millionth post-war home is being completed about now. Melvin H. Baker, a spokesman for the construction industry, considers this "a truly remarkable performance in view of the dislocated and shut-down condition of the industry at the end of the war."

In 1947, the Construction Industry Information Committee says, 849,000 homes were started and 831,700 were completed. Completions were only 17,000 under the number for 1926.

We share in Mr. Baker's pride in that achievement. It is distinctly to the credit of an industry that has been harassed by many obstacles. So we suggest that, big as it is, the achievement still does not meet the nation's pressing needs.

Go right along building a million new homes every year, and it will be fifteen or twenty years before we get one home for each American family.

Today hundreds of thousands of families are living in slum and semi-slum homes not because they can't pay for decent quarters, but because our great nation does not possess enough passable housing for all who, some way, would manage to pay for it.

By all means let's take pride and give credit to builders for reaching the million home a year pace. But let's remember that even that isn't enough to give every family a home to which children not yet in school will be able to take their brides.

Attendance at Warren's playgrounds continues to set new records, emphasizing the farsighted wisdom displayed by those responsible for these popular recreation spots.

It may be all right to put a little fire in the furnace cool nights, but it may be just as well to leave the flannels in moth balls for a while.

Don't overlook that big triple-action program scheduled at the Warren State Hospital and base-ball down of international renown, as a special added attraction. Albrook is a show in himself, we can assure you of that, having had the pleasure of seeing him in this particular role on numerous occasions. Nick, who must be crowding 72 years, has been in the baseball limelight for almost fifty years. Present-day fans will be surprised to learn that Albrook was one of the game's best left-handed pitchers. When the hitless wonders, as the Chicago White Sox were known in 1903, won the American League championship Nick was a regular. He captured 20 and lost 19 games, rating second to Doc White, who had 18 victories and six defeats. Nick's best record was made in Milwaukee in 1902 when he won 19 and lost eight for a club that finished seventh. Four years before he won 17 out of 19 for Grand Rapids, a team that was only one step removed from the cellar. On one occasion he struck out 19 men. That happened when he was pitching for Nicholasville, Ky., against Danville, in the Blue Grass League. He was also a great fielder. In an American League game in 1906 he had 11 assists and two putouts against the Athletics and in the first game of the World Series that autumn he accepted nine fielding chances. After he was finished as an active participant Albrook was taken on by Washington as a coach. He developed an act of clowning that is the funniest thing known in baseball. Fans all over the country enjoy Nick's antics before a game. He can do more one-handed tricks with a first baseman's mitt than most fellows can do with both hands. Don't miss seeing Nick. He's a scream.

Down at Enterprise in the southwestern end of the county, plans are going forward for the annual Old Home Day celebration to be held in the Methodist church Wednesday. Dinner will be served at six o'clock. Later in the evening a program under the direction of the men of the community will be presented. The ladies are sponsoring a bazaar and there will also be refreshment stands. The proceeds will go to the church to help in carrying on its work. All former and present residents are urged to attend.

Over in Titusville an exhibit of articles in wrought iron made by A. C. Westman, of Wrightsville, is attracting considerable attention in the window of the S. P. Eckstrom store on North Franklin street.

This and That: Corry's Cootie contingent, Pup Tent No. 62, realized approximately $200 on the Donkey Ball game played there recently. At Oil City officers of Oil Pup Tent, No. 37, have announced that the Donkey Ball game rained out Sunday afternoon will be rescheduled. Stubs and tickets will not be redeemed but will be honored on the future date. Approximately 1,000 persons were on hand Sunday when only one inning of the game was played. We learn that Mrs. Walter Newhouse and Mrs. Earl Wheeler did yeoman duty at the Bear Lake fire a week ago, preparing and serving hot coffee and doughnuts to the fire fighters which were very much appreciated. Don't overlook Sunday, September 12, date set for the annual field day of the Warren Field and Stream Club, at Wilder Field, Irvine. They have a whole of a program and a record crowd is certain to attend. Local radio listeners, who heard just a portion of a news broadcast Sunday telling of the incident at Youngstown, Pa., when two law officers were killed before their slayer was shot down by a state policeman, stated false rumors in the borough when they placed the shooting at "Youngsville."

Arian Anderson, Peroski - Molinaro Nuptials Are Read In St. Joseph's

Arian Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, and Mrs. Peroski, were united in marriage at 8 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 7, at the home of the bride's mother-in-law, Mrs. Evert Anderson.

St. Joseph's church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8 a. m. Tuesday, August 3, when Father Arthur Leon united in marriage Volanda Molinaro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Molinaro, 112 Pine street, and Steve Peroski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Peroski, 6 High street, Sheffield.

White gladioli were used in simple decoration of the church. Wedding music was furnished by Kathleen Edging, organist, and Josephine Rich who sang "Ave Maria" and "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

The bride's colonial style gown of white satin was fashioned with beaded sweetheart neckline and a long train which was carried by her nephew. Her fingertip veil fell from a headband of orange blossoms and white roses were used to fashion her bouquet.

She was given in marriage by her father and attended by Rose Mancuso as maid of honor; Eva Thompson as bridesmaid, and by her niece, Cecelia Molinaro as junior bridesmaid. Miss Mancuso wore yellow, with matching headpiece, and carried pink roses; Miss Thompson wore an aqua frock and headpiece and carried yellow roses.

The bride chose a blue traveling suit, with which she carried red roses and blue delphinium, and Mrs. Wilson wore a gray suit and carried yellow roses.

The reception followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Evert Anderson assisting the serving. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with gold figures, and the table was decorated with white tapers and red flowers.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilson, parents of the bride; Carl Anderson, father of the bride; Herbert Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Fosberg, Pastor of St. Joseph's church; Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Carlson, Youngsville; Dr. and Mrs. Karl Karlson, St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Carl Johnson, Jean, and Myrtle Johnson, Audrey Wilson, Burton Johnson, Channing Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Evert Anderson and daughter, Nancy, of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. David Lundberg, Mrs. Robert Cree, Bush, N. Y.; and Mrs. Peterson, Ashville, N. Y.

Where's My Passport?

Harnet M. Borg, daughter of Gustaf Borg, has that important bit of paper tucked away safely in her wallet, because she will need it Friday, August 13, when she sails on the MS Gripsholm to spend a year in Sweden. Harnet will be accompanied by Audrey Flaxington, of Hornell, N. Y., the two planning to visit not only Sweden but to tour through Norway, Denmark, Belgium, the Netherlands, and parts of England before returning home.

Using motor bikes—which travel about 100 miles on a gallon of gasoline—as their mode of transportation, the two young women plan to tour the Scandinavian and nearby countries through this fall, next spring and early summer. During next summer, they intend to travel with the International Youth Hostellers.

Primary objective of the trip is the study and comparison of Swedish physical education activities and methods with those of this country. They will work and study in Stockholm this winter. Both Miss Borg and Miss Flaxington have been teachers of physical education in Newark, N. Y. schools, resigning their positions in June for this year of study and travel.

Miss Borg, whose grandparents came from Sweden, has relatives in Stockholm, Vasterby, and Eskilstuna, whom she will visit. By working and living with the people of Scandinavia, they hope to develop a fuller understanding of the customs and peoples.

The girls intend to travel as "light" as possible, but do intend to take along as much coffee as they can conveniently pack. In letters received from Miss Borg's relatives, they learned that coffee, consumed in large quantities by the Swedish people, is definitely scarce. The maze of regulations regarding visas, passports and the like has been ironed out and the girls left Warren yesterday afternoon on the first leg of their journey. "Now," Miss Borg adds, "I can just remember that foreign traffic travels on the left side of the road!"

Grece and Wilson Rites on Saturday

Mixed garden flowers were used in attractive arrangement of the North Warren Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon, August 7, when the wedding of Miss Gladys Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Grace Wilson, Carver street, and Charles Grece, of Jersey City, N. J.

The ceremony was performed by candlelight at seven o'clock, Rev. Robert C. Knapp officiating, and Mrs. Watson Jameson at the organ. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Wilson, Warren, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride chose a blue traveling suit, with which she carried red roses and blue delphinium, and Mrs. Wilson wore a gray suit and carried yellow roses.

The reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grece, North Warren, with all-white appointments carried out with summer flowers, white candles and a beautifully decorated wedding cake.

Out of town guests were W. L. Nuttall, Sherman, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Jersey City, N. J.

Following a wedding trip to an unannounced destination, the couple will reside in Jersey City.

The bride is a graduate of Bloomsburg College, receiving her master's degree last Friday, and having been honored with a party by fellow-students.

The bridegroom is a retired employee of the Edison Company in Jersey City.

Peroski - Molinaro Nuptials Are Read In St. Joseph's

St. Joseph's church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8 a. m. Tuesday, August 8, when Father Arthur Leon united in marriage Yolanda Molinaro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Molinaro, 112 Pine street, and Steve Peroski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Peroski, 6 High street, Sheffield.

White gladioli were used in simple decoration of the church. Wedding music was furnished by Kathleen Edinger, organist, and Josephine Rich, who sang "Ave Maria" and "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

The bride's colonial style gown of white satin was fashioned with beaded sweetheart neckline and a long train which was carried by her nephew. Her fingertip veil fell from a head bandeau of orange blossoms and white roses were used to fashion her bouquet.

She was given in marriage by her father and attended by Rose Mancuso as maid of honor; Eva Thompson as bridesmaid, and by her niece, Cecelia Molinaro as junior bridesmaid. Miss Mancuso wore yellow, with matching headpiece, and carried pink roses; Miss Thompson wore an aqua frock and headpiece and carried yellow roses, and Miss Molinaro was in pink, with matching headpiece, and carried a bouquet of white gladioli centered with roses.

Steve Peroski, Sheffield, was best man for his cousin and the usher was Leon Thompson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Titusville.

The bride's mother wore a navy frock and matching accessories and Mrs. Peroski wore a light blue print, each with a rose corsage.

Dinner for 50 guests followed at the Marconi Outing Club and the reception was held there from two until six o'clock. The bride's table was appointed with white gladioli and a three-tier wedding cake. Assorted gladioli centered the surrounding tables. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson furnished music for the reception.

The guest list of 150 included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Peroski and family, Sheffield; Murphy Omara, Clarendon; Anthony Fragale, Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Thompson, Titusville; Arminia Pasqualine, Geneva, O.

The couple returned today from a wedding trip to Erie, Geneva on the Lake and Cleveland, and will be at home at 910 Pennsylvania avenue, west. For traveling, the bride chose a navy frock with pink and lime print, navy accessories and a beige gingham coat.

The bride was graduated from St. Joseph's parochial school and Warren High School and is employed as a clerk at Jean Frocks, Inc. Showers were given in her honor by her mother; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Molinaro; Rose Mancuso, Rose Corolia, and Mrs. P. Vigio. She was also entertained at dinner by fellow-employees from Jean Frocks.

The bridegroom attended Sheffield grade and high schools and is employed by the Dravo Construction Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, and Mrs. Carl Anderson, who are residing in Warren, Pa., were united in marriage at 8 p. m. Saturday, August 8, at the home of the bride's mother-in-law, Mrs. Evert Anderson, 315 Ring ceremony in the presence of 35 guests.

Mrs. Emil Jacobson, Warren, was traditional wedding music for the guests assembled, and accompanied Mrs. Karl Karlson, of Paul, Minn., cousin of the bride, sang, "O Promise Me" and "I Love Thee," preceding the ceremony and "O Perfect Love," while the couple knelt.

The bride's only attendant was sister, Lillian Anderson, who was dressed in a blue tulle, matching gauntlets, and carried a nosegay of pink roses tied in matching satin ribbon.

The bride's gown of white tulle was fashioned with a drop-neckline, with Chantilly lace. Her bouffant skirt ended a medium-length train, and her length veil of imported French tulle net fell from a tiara of white roses. She carried a nosegay of white roses tied with white ribbon. Gauntlets and white sandals completed her costume.

A reception followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Evert Johnson and Mrs. Emil Jacobson assisting the serving. The three-tier wedding cake was topped with white gladioli, and the table was decorated with white tapers and garden flowers.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Karlson, parents of the bridegroom; Carl Anderson, father of the bride; Herbert Karlson, Mr. and Mrs. Oman Fosberg, Pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Clarendon; Dr. and Mrs. Karl Karlson, Phyllis Karlson, St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Carl Johnson, Jean, and Myrtle Johnson, Audrey, Burton Pangborn, Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Evert Johnson and daughter, Nancy, of Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jacobson, and Mrs. David Lindberg, Evert Anderson, Warren; Robert Cree, Busti, N. Y.; Roline Peterson, Ashville, N. Y.

Where's My Passport?

Harriet M. Borg, daughter of Gustaf Borg, has that important bit of paper tucked away safely in her wallet, because she will need it Friday, August 13, when she sails on the MS Gripsholm to spend a year in Sweden. Harriet will be accompanied by Audrey Flaxington, of Hornell, N. Y., the two planning to visit not only Sweden but to tour through Norway, Denmark, Belgium, the Netherlands, and parts of England before returning home.

Using motor bikes—which travel about 100 miles on a gallon of gasoline—as their mode of transportation, the two young women plan to tour the Scandinavian and nearby countries through this fall, next spring and early summer. During next summer, they intend to travel with the International Youth Hostellers.

Primary objective of the trip is the study and comparison of Swedish physical education activities and methods with those of this country. They will work and study in Stockholm this winter. Both Miss Borg and Miss Flaxington have been teachers of physical education in Newark, N. Y., schools, resigning their positions in June for this year of study and travel.

Miss Borg, whose grandparents came from Sweden, has relatives in Stockholm, Vimmerby, and Boxholm, whom the two will visit. By working and living with the people of Scandinavia, they hope to develop a fuller understanding of the customs and peoples.

The girls intend to travel as "light" as possible, but do intend to take along as much coffee as they can conveniently pack. In letters received from Miss Borg's relatives, they learned that coffee, consumed in large quantities by the Swedish people, is definitely scarce. The maze of regulations regarding visas, passports and the like has been ironed out and the girls left Warren yesterday afternoon on the first leg of their journey. "Now," Miss Borg added, "if I can just remember that foreign traffic travels on the left side of the road!"

The ceremony was performed by candlelight at seven o'clock, Rev. Robert C. Knapp officiating and Mrs. Watson Jamieson at the organ for traditional wedding music.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Wilson, Warren, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride chose a blue traveling suit, with which she carried red roses and blue delphinium, and Mrs. Wilson wore a gray suit and carried yellow roses.

The reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brooks, North Warren, with all-white appointments carried out with summer flowers, white candles and a beautifully decorated wedding cake.

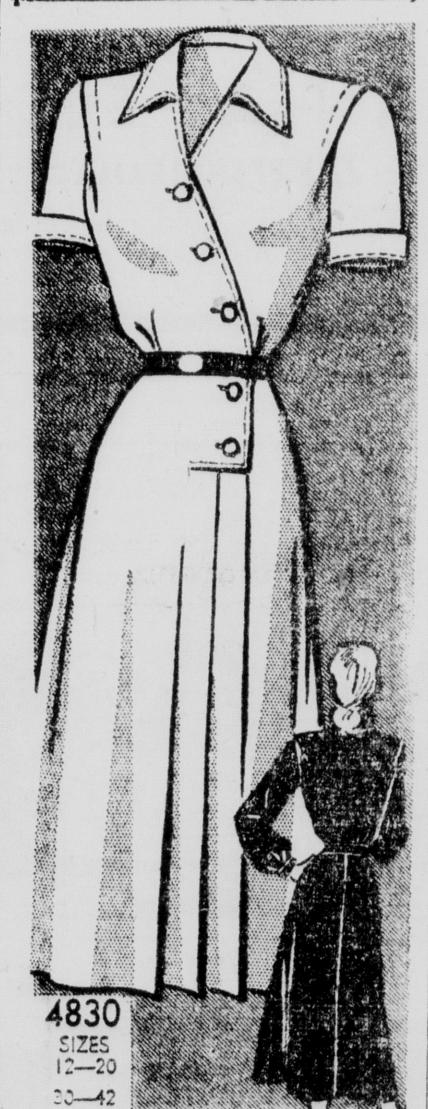

Out of town guests were W. L. Nuttall, Sherman, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Jersey City, N. J.

Following a wedding trip to an announced destination, the couple will reside in Jersey City.

The bride is a graduate of Bloomsburg College, receiving her master's degree last Friday and is for all members, junior members and their out of town guests. Reservations must be made no later than Thursday for dinner to be served at 7:30 o'clock.

President Of The Kiwanis International Plans Tour

Officers of the Kiwanis Club of Warren, Pa., learned today that J. Belmont Mosser, prominent Pennsylvania industrialist and recently elected president of Kiwanis International, probably will speak in this section sometime during his one-year administration.

James A. Blomquist, president of the club, said that following his election at Los Angeles the new Kiwanis Chief Executive had indicated he would launch his speaking itinerary in late summer. This schedule undoubtedly will carry him into a majority of the 29 Kiwanis districts throughout the United States and Canada, President Blomquist added.

Delegates to the largest convention in the history of Kiwanis International named Mosser to succeed Dr. Charles W. Armstrong, Salisbury, N. C., who served as president of the community service organization during the past year.

J. BELMONT MOSSE

Long active in eastern industrial circles, Mosser is vice president and general sales manager of the Speer Carbon Company and vice president of the International Graphite and Electric Corp., both at St. Marys, Pa., where he maintains his home.

In a press conference a few days ago, Mosser said that during his administration he would advocate a program of adult education based primarily on the principle that freedom is "everybody's business." He declared the public must become aware of the dangers that threaten liberty.

"The apathetic and indifferent attitude of today that has resulted in mounting government debt, in broken homes, and empty churches is not the spirit that forded the rivers and scaled the Rocky Mountains."

Mosser said that it is essential that "we realize that the ballot is sacred, that youth must have proper leadership, and that the Government is the servant of the people."

Active in civic affairs for many years the new Kiwanis president recently was appointed by Governor Duff of Pennsylvania to the State Committee to Study Education Facilities. He also is a past chairman of the carbon section of the National Electric Manufacturers association. At St. Marys, he has served as co-chairman of six war fund drives and as a director of the St. Marys Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Community Chest.

Mosser was treasurer of Kiwanis International for the past two years. Prior to that time he served as a member of the International board of trustees, International committee chairman, governor of the Pennsylvania Kiwanis District, and president of the St. Marys club.

As president of Kiwanis International, he will represent more than 2,800 clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii, embracing a membership of 190,000 business and professional leaders.

... Imagine "shopping" right at home for foods frozen at their prime and bought at the lowest price ... garden fresh in flavor ... packed with fresh food energy

Watch eyes sparkle with delight when you serve, let's say on Christmas Day, last summer's choicest strawberries. Watch the grins when they taste "picked this morning" flavor. Watch Dad's face light up when he learns that the prime cut of beef was bought when prices were low. Watch the surprise when you serve fish or game taken in season and served months later.

Begin now to enjoy the many advantages and conveniences of owning an Electric Home Freezer. It's the practical and economical way of safely preserving and storing foods for home use. Meats, fruits, berries, garden vegetables, fish and game are all easily prepared for freezing ... and when served later on your table, they are chock-full of flavor, rich in health-giving vitamins. It's an investment in health, economy and convenience for you and your family.

State Trucker Red Cross Is Will Attend Recruiting Safety Meet Polio Nurses

Pennsylvania's trucking industry representative at a national highway safety conference in Chicago, August 26-27 will be W. W. Ward, Altoona, president of the Ward Trucking Corporation, appointed by William F. Crossett, Warren, president of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association.

The national conference is sponsored by the American Trucking Associations, E. J. Bushner, Louisville, Ky., president. Driver training, accident prevention and traffic problems were on the program for formulation of a broad national and state safety promotion.

Mr. Ward, Pennsylvania's delegate, connected with the trucking industry for almost 20 years, operates a large fleet of commercial vehicles in eastern state, and his organization has established an enviable safety record through an intensive and continuous training program. President Crossett said, in addition to the development of a most successful accident prevention program in his own organization Mr. Ward during World War II was a regional advisor on the Office of Defense Transportation staff in the eastern United States.

He also participated actively in the nine-county area around Altoona in the development of high safety standards and transportation conservation to promote the war effort.

"Old Folks at Home," popular American song, earned its author, Stephen Foster, only $1,647.46 during his lifetime.

Eastern Area headquarters of the American Red Cross announced that increase of polio victims in some states has already required extensive recruitment of nurses to meet emergency needs.

Individual chapters of the area have supplied 86 nurses for southern states and it is anticipated the need for nurses may continue to grow in the next two months.

Local nurses, whether or not they have had special training with polio, may volunteer for such service by contacting their local chairman.

Polio nurses recruited by the Red Cross become employees of the hospital of which they work and are not employees of either the Red Cross or the National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis.

Further information concerning qualifications, status, salary and maintenance may be had by contacting the local Red Cross headquarters.

Great Numbers of PEOPLE

It takes much more than great quantities of good equipment to provide good telephone service. It also takes great numbers of people.

Nearly one out of every 100 Pennsylvanians, in fact, every works for this company or has money invested in the telephone business... while nearly 99 out of every 100 Pennsylvanians rely upon telephone service, directly or indirectly, for convenience, pleasure, help in time of emergencies, and for business of their own.

To the welfare of the telephone business is linked the welfare of Pennsylvanians... and thus of Pennsylvania itself.

Find My Killer

By MANLY WELLMAN

Chapter 31

DR. STOKES came around the desk, sat down in the chair I'd been using. He switched the gun to his left hand and with the gloved fingers of his right began to strike keys, fast and hard.

He took minutes to do what he was doing. Once I set myself to jump, but he pointed the gun at my belly and I relaxed. And then the doctor finished, and got up, shifting the gun back to his right hand.

"There's your out," he said. "You can leave town as I tell you to, but this stays with me so that I'll know you'll stay away from Smith City, the Baling case, and me. Come and see what I wrote."

He drew back toward one side of the desk and let me approach the typewriter. He'd written the note in capitals:

ONLY I KNOW HOW AND WHY I MURDERED RICHARD EALING. MRS. PETTIGREW, AL BENSINGER AND ALCHISEZ. AND I WON'T TELL I AM MAKING THIS CONFESSION BECAUSE I FEEL FORCED TO. NOW I AM CHECKING OUT FOREVER. I WON'T FACE ANOTHER SESSION WITH THE POLICE. GOODBYE TO ALL.

"Sign it," he ordered me. I straightened up and faced him, almost within grabbing distance, but not quite.

"Nothing doing," I said. "Do you call this a confession? It reads like a suicide note. It would look grand beside my dead body, wouldn't it? Well, I don't sign, doctor. You can kill me, but I'm not doing anything that will clear you of that."

"Then leave it like that. It's almost as good without your signing." He pointed the pistol, his hand tense on it. "You're right, it does look like a suicide note. Good—suicide note, a dead body. Case closed."

He stepped an inch toward me and I backed up. I felt the breeze from the window just behind me.

"If you shoot me," I talked fast, "you'll have to leave that gun beside me. Even if you close my hand around it, you won't leave the right kind of prints. It won't be as good a job as the one you did with Failing. And guns can be traced through who sold them. Raniel will trace that one. Right to you."

"Talk yourself out," said Dr. Stokes, smiling above those two staring muzzles. "It's the last thing you'll ever do."

"They'll tie the gun to you. Shooting me sends you definitely to the chair. You're a fool, doctor."

"No, Yates," he said, "it's you that's being the fool. You aren't going to die by a bullet."

He threw the gun and it bounced off of my face, filling my eyes with sparks. I swayed backward and he rushed in and grabbed my shoulders, forcing them back.

I reeled off balance, the window sill against the backs of my knees. I fell halfway out, grabbing the stiff fabric of the shade that snoved out of the window with me. I stared up into the evening sky, just beginning to dust itself over with the first stars.

I felt the whip of the breeze and heard the motors in the street, ninety miles below. Then I pulled, and the shade tore to pieces, but I was back in.

I threw Dr. Stokes clear of me and he stopped like lightning. So did I. My hand out for that fallen gun, but he had it first.

"What's going on in here?" That was J. D. Thatcher. She walked in from the front office, her face as white as death under the most lovely hair-do the angels in heaven might envy. Dr. Stokes, in the act of lifting the gun toward me, spun around as if her voice had pulled him like a string. He called her a name I won't set down here and started to point the gun at her.

But I'd had time to step in. I clouted him behind the ear.

His gun went off, but he was on the way down and the bullet clouted into the floor.

"What's going—" J. D. started to say again.

"Call a doctor," I told her. "Quick. Mrs. Pettigrew's hurt."

J. D. gurgled and muttered and I thought she was going to be hysterical. But she reached for the phone. Dr. Stokes got up to his knees, then to his feet. I jabbed him in the nose to steady him and his glasses flew off. I saw his eyes stare and blink. Then I shifted and uppercut him. His whole body followed his head backward, hard and heavy, and flopped on the floor. This time he lay as still as Mrs. Pettigrew.

J. D. was telephoning. When she had finished, she looked at me. "They're sending an ambulance," she said. "Isn't that better?"

"Much better," I said. Then, as she turned toward Mrs. Pettigrew, "No, don't touch her. Leave that for somebody who knows how to handle a bad concussion case. Shove the phone over, will you?"

I called police headquarters. "Is Lieutenant Raniel in his office?" I asked. For a wonder, he was.

"This is Yates," I told him. "Can you come over to my office? I've got that killer we've all been trying to catch."

"Oh," he said. "Who's your new nominee, mastermind?" "An old nominee," I replied. "Dr. Stokes."

"Now look here. If you think I'm going through that same monkey business again—"

"It's not the same business. It's the real thing. He's confessed. He's pulled a gun. He's tried to kill a witness. He's resisted arrest."

"It's another of your pipe dreams," Raniel almost wailed. "I'm sick of the day you bumbled your way into town."

"Call it whatever you want to, but get over here. I just got through slapping Dr. Stokes bow-legged. He wears glasses—I knocked him loose from them. It's a crime to hit anybody that wears glasses, isn't it? Come over on that account, come over on my account, come over on Quick."

"I'm coming," he said. (To be continued)

V. F. W. Wins First Half Title In Sunset League With 8-3 Victory Over Struthers-Wells

Long hits at opportune times by Veshing and Sharp, combined with the wizardry of Dick Kifer, won the V. F. W. the first half of the Sunset League title at the VFW club in a thrilling game at the State Hospital diamond last evening by a score of 8-3, with the Struthers-Wells on the losing end.

Sharp, still a catcher for the Vets, led the attack with four hits in as many times up, while Kifer pitched the game and handled the defense. Veshing, who made by his team, Veshing, who also was a powerful factor in the defense, with his scrappy fielding at short stop, had two hits in as many times up, while Kifer pitched the game and handled the defense. (By Joe Gardner)

When "Bullet" Paris steps out on the hospital diamond, Saturday, August 14, to take part in the Kiwanis Underprivileged Children's Benefit, the fans will be privileged to see one of the foremost all-around athletes who ever lived. Called in every line of endeavor, he was Warren's baseball and football clubs for many years, interrupted only by his service overseas during the first World War. While in his hey day the "Bullet" was of 48 calibre, today Father Time has transformed the bang of the "Bullet", comparatively speaking, to the sound of a cap pistol insofar as his athletic ability is concerned. However in this respect he is not exclusive because a host of other Old Time fireballs will be out there Saturday along with the "Bullet" and they too have the ravages of time deeply ingrained on their physical prowess. There is "Grandpop" Jewell who has a noticeable falling of the chest, acquired perhaps by too much time spent behind the dinner table and too little time behind the lawn mower, then there is the once nimble "Rabbit" Swanson, the terror of the basepaths, the despair of opposing pitchers, who now wouldn't dare race with a five year old and be absolutely sure of the result. Even the once mighty right arm of "Pike" Peterson has so deteriorated that it is difficult for him to juggle a tennis ball. It will be remembered that when "Pike" made his appearance three years ago for the same benefit, it was necessary to carry him to the pitcher's mound on a stretcher, since that time he has been in retirement so far as baseball or anything more strenuous than a brisk walk is concerned. It is hoped, however, that the urgency of the situation on August 14 will be a determining factor and his appearance in that moth-eaten uniform, attesting to his past glory, will be greatly appreciated. Paul Harrington, Freddy Gebhart, Randy Randell and Mike Biesch still fancy themselves able to enjoy the new look but a peak at their grey top knots proves this just another daydream and their story that grey hair comes prematurely because of occupational hazard is just a lot of eyewash. All are old enough and frail enough to occupy the front of the bench at the Old Timers game. Time and space limits our ability to pay many others who richly deserve a good going over, suffice it to say that when two such old timers as "Uble" Huff and "Mitchell" Laird can come all the way from Baltimore, Maryland, for this game, then it is reasonable to hope that Old Timers living within the county will be on hand at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, August 14, without being served with a Bench Warrant.

Slaughter Pounds Out Four Hits to Lead Card Victory

Associated Press Sports Writer

Who do you think has been the ringleader in the St. Louis Cardinals' current drive to overtake the Boston Braves in the red hot National League pennant race?

Stan Musial? No, sir. It's been Enos (Country) Slaughter, Stan's running mate.

Partly obscured by the big shadow of Musial since Stan joined the Cardinals late in 1941, Slaughter, a great player in his own right, has outdone even the mighty Musial with the bat during the past three weeks.

Last night Slaughter collected four hits in four times at bat. He drove in five runs and almost single-handedly led the Cardinals to a 6-2 triumph over the Reds in Cincinnati.

Slaughter's hits included two singles, a double and a triple. His triple came with the bases loaded in the first inning. His double brought in two runners in the seventh.

The victory enabled the second place Cardinals to advance within three and a half games of the idle Braves. They lead the third place Brooklyn Dodgers by half a game.

The Dodgers kept pace with the Cardinals, edging out Philadelphia, 2-1, in a tight pitching duel between Carl Erskine and Blix Donnelly. Erskine, a 21-year-old re-

crut recently brought up from Fort Worth, permitted the Phils only five hits in registering his fourth victory without a setback. One of the Phils' blows was Del Ennis' 17th home run.

The Cleveland Indians moved a half game out in front in the torrid American League pennant race as Gene Bearden pitched the Tribe to a 6-2 victory over the Tigers in a night game in Detroit.

A crowd of 56,586, largest of the year in Detroit, saw Bearden tame the Bengals with seven hits. Eddie Robinson's three-run homer in the fourth off Freddie Hutchinson gave the tall rookie lefthander enough runs to rack up his 10th victory.

The victory put the Tribe a half game in front of the runner-up Philadelphia Athletics, two and a half ahead of the third place New York Yankees and three in front of the fourth place Boston Red Sox.

Bob Dillinger banged a triple and two doubles to lead the Browns to an 8-6 triumph over the Chicago White Sox in a night game in St. Louis.

Other teams in both leagues were not scheduled.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC

Vandergrift increased its mid-die Atlantic League lead to 2½ games last night by winning from Butler 4-2 while second-place Uniontown was dropping an 8-7 heart-breaker to New Castle.

Eddie Kempf scattered eight hits to get off for Vandergrift's catch of John Drew's long fly to center ended a ninth-inning Butler rally with just one run.

New Castle tied up its game with two runs in the ninth and won in the 10th on Catcher Mike Fedunak's home run.

Dale Fisher allowed only five singles as the Erie Sailors downed Oil City 7-1. Ziggy Jasinski and Pete Ervovich hit homers for Erie. Oil City Manager Ed Downing and players Jim Fisher, Jim Robinson and Johnny Moore were banished for arguing about balls and strikes.

The Johnstown Johnnies scored three unearned runs in the 10th inning to beat Youngstown, 7-4. Dan Keith was the Johnnies' star, getting three doubles.

PONY LEAGUE

Thirteen of Batavia's clippers were fanned last night by Chick McCombie, hurling for the PONY League's third place Hamilton Cardinals.

Hamilton won, 4-2, leaving the Cuppers a single percentage point behind the Wellsville Red Sox for fourth place. The Red Sox also were beaten, 10-2 by the Clean Oilers.

The leading Lockport Reds gave the trailing Hornell Maple Leafs a double licking, 10-7 in eight innings and 4-1.

Jamestown's second place Falcons ended an eight game winning streak for the Bradford Blue Wings by edging them 2-1.

Elkers Take Close Contest At West End

Somebody must have walked somebody, because our dope sheet tells us that the West End got 7 runs on 4 hits and one error by the Coneywango Elks last night at the West Side field, only to lose the game to the Elkers by a score of 8-7. The Coneywango runs came as a result of 8 hits including a double by Foley and three batters by Cropp and Schellhammer. Schellhammer's big bungle came in the first with the sacks loaded, and he went on to hit 3 for 3 in the game.

Disputed 400 Meter Race Is Awarded U. S.

London, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The Olympic press office said today an Olympic jury of appeal has ruled the United States won the disputed 400 meter relay race.

The jury thus reversed the judges' decision which disqualified the American team after it finished about ten yards ahead of the British.

The judges had said the baton was passed illegally on the first exchange between Barney Ewell and Lorenzo Wright.

The American lodged a formal protest, maintaining that everything was on the up and up, and asked the jury of appeal to review the evidence.

This evidence consists of official movies which the jury planned to view this morning. It had planned to look at the pictures yesterday, but didn't get around to it.

The studio officials who did see them couldn't agree on what they saw except that Barney Ewell and Lorenzo Wright took plenty of time swapping the hollow tube. The official ruled they took too much ground, and fouled.

"It was a slow pass," said Wright. "We wanted to make sure of it, but it was a legal pass."

Yesterday's biggest show was America's victory in the eight-oared shell final. The University of California crew representing the United States best Great Britain by three lengths. The four-oared shell with coxswain from the University of Washington, bested the Swiss for another Olympic rowing title.

V. F. W. Wins First Half Title
In Sunset League With 8-3
Victory Over Struthers-Wells

Long hits at opportune times by Vesling and Sharp, combined with the wizardry of Dick Kifer's mound work in the pinches brought the first half in the Sunset League to the VFW club in a sizzling game at the State Hospital diamond last evening, by a score of 8 to 3, with the Struthers-Wells on the losing end.

Sharp, stalky catcher for the Vets, led the attack with four hits in as many times up, which accounted for four of the eight runs made by his team. Vesling, who also was a powerful factor in the defense with his snappy fielding at short stop, had two hits in his three trips to the plate. Dick Kifer's home run across the plate, four bagger deep into centerfield, was among the highlights of the game which provided plenty of excitement for the crowd on hand, to witness the clash that decided the winner of the first half.

Kifer pitched steady ball for the winners, although he found himself in difficulties in at least two innings when the Ironworkers filled the bases. Seventeen Ironworkers went down via the strike-out route.

The VFW will play Glendora Cops, winners of the second half, a three-game series for the championship of the Sunset League. All games will be played on the State Hospital diamond, starting next Wednesday at 6:30 o'clock. The second game will be played Monday, August 16, and if a third

K. C. Bowlers
Have Match
Saturday Nite

The Knights of Columbus will open their bowling season with a match composed of "Old Timers" on Saturday night, August 14, at the Arcade Alleys. The "Old Timers" are composed of members who originally started the K. of C. Bowling League which from 22 members has increased to 16 six-man teams of which 85 men went to the Syracuse K. of C. Tournament last April 18-19.

The four teams will be composed of the following "Old Timers": Robert Haben, Sam Gerardi, Pat Gerardi, Frank Gerardi, Joseph (Bunny) Scalise, John Praud, Dr. J. T. Valone, Leo Minnelli, C. Morrison, H. R. Henderson, John Salomon.

George Yanzabek, Nick Mangus, Paul Copola, C. Bonavita, F. Bonavita, Gus Cerra, Tony Ortole, C. Robinson, Dom Rock, T. Kramer, Tony Pazio.

Regular meeting of the K. of C. will be held Thursday, August 12 at 8:30 p. m. This will be the only meeting during the month of August and there are important matters up for discussion. All members who are planning to bowl for the coming season, please sign immediately so that the teams can be arranged. Members are reminded that the chartered bus for Olean will leave at 1 p. m. Sunday, August 15th from the Council rooms.

Bowling Activities
Already Under Way

Bowling activities are opening up rapidly in the borough, and the cool evenings add to the interest of fans. That Lawson announces his Arcade Alleys are open evenings and according to reports many keggers are taking advantage of the opportunity to get in some warm up games.

Return post cards have been mailed to interested Elk members and the committee in charge urges that they be filled out and returned as early as possible. The Elk alleys will open Saturday, September 11th, and will be available for open bowling until September 20th, when the League matches will start.

SOFTBALL GAME IS SCHEDULED FRIDAY

Friday night, August 13th, the Busy Bees of the City League and the K. of C. of the Church YMCA League will play at the West End diamond at 6:30 p. m. Players of both teams are requested to be there so that there will be no delay in starting the game.

Mack Confident
A's Have a Chance

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Connie Mack led his bargain basement pennant contenders into Shibe Park today convinced the Philadelphia Athletics have "a better than a good chance" to finish atop the American League.

Griming broadly as he returned to Philadelphia after a successful swing through the west, the 80-year-old pilot announced firmly "we're in there to stay."

A sellout crowd was assured for today's two-night doubleheader with the Washington Senators and Mack was ready to use Joe Coleman and Bill McCahan in quest of a double win that could elevate the Athletics to the league leadership. The A's now trail Cleveland by a half game.

"The club is in good shape," Mack said. "All our injuries are healed and the pitchers are in better condition than they have been all season."

Corydon Indies In Double-Header Split

Corydon, Aug. 10.—In a double-header Sunday the Corydon State Line Independents defeated the Coldspring Indians by a score of 5 to 1. In the second tilt with the Seneca Indians the Corydon Indies dropped the decision by a 10-5 score despite some good hitting and fielding. Henry Ruth was among the heavy hitters with a two-bagger.

When "Bullet" Paris steps out on the hospital diamond, Saturday, August 14, to take part in the Kiwanis Underprivileged Children's Benefit, the fans will be privileged to see one of the foremost all-around athletes who ever wore Warren spangles. "Bullet" was an outstanding letterman of Warren high where he excelled in every line of sport. Then when high school days were over, he was to become a tower of strength on Warren's baseball and football clubs for many years, interrupted only by his service overseas during the first World War. While in his hey day the "Bullet" was of 48 calibre, today Father Time has transformed the bang of the "Bullet", comparatively speaking, to the sound of a cap pistol insofar as his athletic ability is concerned. However in this respect he is not exclusive because a host of other Old Time fireballs will be out there Saturday along with the "Bullet" and they too have the ravages of time deeply ingrained on their physical prowess. There is "Grandpop" Jewell who has a noticeable falling of the chest, acquired perhaps by too much time spent behind the dinner table and too little time behind the lawn mower, then there is the once nimble "Rabbit" Swanson, the terror of the basepaths, the despair of opposing pitchers, who now wouldn't dare race with a five year old and be absolutely sure of the result. Even the once mighty right arm of "Pike" Peterson has so deteriorated that it is difficult for him to juggle a tennis ball. It will be remembered that when "Pike" made his appearance three years ago for the same benefit, it was necessary to carry him to the pitcher's mound on a stretcher, since that time he has been in retirement as far as baseball or anything more strenuous than a brisk walk is concerned. It is hoped, however, that the urgency of the situation on August 14 will be a determining factor and his appearance in that moth-eaten uniform, attesting to his past glory, will be greatly appreciated. Paul Harrington, Freddy Gebhart, Randy Randinelli and Mike Blech still fancy themselves able to enjoy the new look but a peak at their grey top knots proves this just another daydream and their story that grey hair comes prematurely because of occupational hazard is just a lot of eyewash. All are old enough and frail enough to occupy the front row on the players' bench at the Old Timers game. Time and space limits our ability to pan many others who richly deserve a good going over, suffice it is to say that when two such old timers as "Unle" Huff and "Mitchell" Laird can come all the way from Baltimore, Maryland, for this game, then it is reasonable to hope that Old Timers living within the county will be on hand at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, August 14, without being served with a Bench Warrant.

Slaughter Pounds Out Four
Hits to Lead Card Victory

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Who do you think has been the ringleader in the St. Louis Cardinals' current drive to overtake the Boston Braves in the red hot National League pennant race? Stan Musial? No, sir. It's been Enos (Country) Slaughter, Stan's running mate.

Partly obscured by the big shadow of Musial since Stan joined the Cardinals late in 1941, Slaughter, a great player in his own right, has outdone even the mighty Musial with the bat during the past three weeks.

Last night Slaughter collected four hits in four times at bat. He drove in five runs and almost single-handedly led the Cardinals to a 6-2 triumph over the Reds in Cincinnati.

Slaughter's hits included two singles, a double and a triple. His triple came with the bases loaded in the first inning. His double brought in two runners in the seventh.

The victory enabled the second place Cardinals to advance within three and a half games of the idle Braves. They lead the third place Brooklyn Dodgers by half a game.

The Dodgers kept pace with the Cardinals, edging out Philadelphia 2-1, in a tight pitching duel between Earl Evers and Blix Donnelly. Evers, a 21-year-old re-

crut recently brought up from Fort Worth, permitted the Phils only five hits in registering his fourth victory without a setback. One of the Phils' blows was Del Ennis' 11th home run.

The Cleveland Indians moved a half game out in front in the torrid American League pennant race as Gene Bearden pitched the Tribe to a 6-2 victory over the Tigers in a night game in Detroit.

A crowd of 55,586, largest of the year in Detroit, saw Bearden tame the Bengals with seven hits. Eddie Robinson's three-run homer in the fourth off Freddie Hutchinson gave the tall rookie lefthander enough runs to rack up his 10th victory.

The victory put the Tribe a half game in front of the runner-up Philadelphia Athletics, two and a half ahead of the third place New York Yankees and three in front of the fourth place Boston Red Sox.

Bob Dillinger banged a triple and two doubles to lead the Browns to an 8-6 triumph over the Chicago White Sox in a night game in St. Louis.

Other teams in both leagues were not scheduled.

Elkers Take
Close Contest
At West End

Somebody must have walked somebody, because our dope sheet tells us that the West End got 7 runs on 4 hits and one error by the Conewango Elks last night at the West Side field, only to lose the game to the Elkers by a score of 8-7. The Conewango runs came as a result of 9 hits including a double by Foley and three batters by Cropp and Schellhammer. Schellhammer's big single came in the first with the sacks loaded, and he went on to hit 3 for 3 in the game.

Disputed 400
Meter Race Is Awarded U. S.

London, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The Olympic press office said today an Olympic jury of appeal has ruled the United States won the disputed 400 meter relay race.

The jury thus reversed the judges' decision which disqualified the American team after it finished about ten yards ahead of the British.

The judges had said the baton was passed illegally on the first exchange between Barney Ewell and Lorenzo Wright.

The American lodged a formal protest, maintaining that everything was on the up and up, and asked the jury of appeal to review the evidence.

This evidence consists of official movies which the jury planned to view this morning. It has planned to look at the pictures yesterday, but didn't get around to it.

The studio officials who did see them couldn't agree on what they saw except that Barney Ewell and Lorenzo Wright took plenty of time swapping the hollow tube. The official ruled they took too much ground, and fouled.

"It was a slow pass," said Wright. "We wanted to make sure of it, but it was a legal pass."

Yesterday's biggest show was America's victory in the eight-oared shell final. The University of California crew representing the United States beat Great Britain by three lengths. The four-oared shell with coxswain from the University of Washington, bested the Swiss for another Olympic rowing title.

Louis Still Hasn't Given
Official "No"

Camden, N. J., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Reports that the National Boxing Association would tag the winner heavyweight champion today strengthened the likelihood of an October match between Jersey Joe Walcott and the victor in the Ezzard Charles-Jimmy Blivins bout.

The reports came from Gabe Memendez, Washington promoter seeking to present the fight in the nation's capital in October, and from Leon Rains, chairman of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission.

Said Memendez: "Although Joe Louis has announced his retirement to the public, he has not given official notice to the NBA, but the NBA will force his hand when it holds its annual convention in Philadelphia beginning September 12."

Memendez said that Harvey Miller, District of Columbia boxing commissioner and secretary of the NBA "will put it up to the convention and poll the delegates the question of approving a match between the Blivins-Charles win and Walcott for the title."

Rains, whose commission v play host to the NBA convention said he too is heartily in favor of the October bout, which would be held at Griffith Stadium.

Blivins and Charles will meet the Washington ball park on September 13.

Vendors To Be Licensed In Youngsville

Youngsville, Aug. 10—Borough Council recently passed an ordinance which provides for the licensing of hawkers, vendors, peddlers and others going from house to house, or place to place, with or without vehicles, for the purpose of selling and peddling wares, goods or merchandise. License fee required is $1 per day, but no license will be issued for less than thirty days. Fines of $5 to $20 may be imposed for each day of violation without the proper license. This new ordinance, it is pointed out, does not apply to those selling vegetable or animal products raised on their own land.

Those who are leaving to attend the wedding of Mary Elizabeth Hamlin and Arthur Bogren, Jr., in San Jose, Calif., are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lawson, Mrs. Marie Swanson and son, Tordon, of Youngsville; Mrs. Hanna Damsel and daughter, Ruth, Warren.

The ice cream social, previously announced by the Red Circle to be held on the lawn of the Methodist church, Tuesday evening, has been postponed to a later date, since it conflicted with a social to be held on the lawn of the Saron Lutheran church.

Miss Margaret Brazee, secretary of the Youngsville borough is spending a vacation in Cleveland and Youngstown.

Methodist members and friends are invited to attend on August 17, an ox roast at the Ida M. Cribbs Home in Connecticut.

Wendell Engstrom is constructing an attractive home on College street extension, and other homes are being planned for construction on this street.

Work is progressing well on the redecoration of the Methodist church. At present services are being held in the church basement where there is ample room for these services in the large dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Negus and family, of Fort Pierce, Fla., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mead.

Despite the rain of Wednesday, the Methodist church school held its annual picnic at Allen Park, Jamestown. The children enjoyed the wading pool and picnic ground equipment. There were a number of the older adults present as well as the children and young people and all enjoyed the fine cooperative dinner in the pavilion. Great credit should be given the committees who worked hard to make the picnic a success, even if the weather was not favorable.

days on down to their modern cooperatives which they use to secure their farm production supplies and to sell farm products.

Tidioute GLF Plans Meeting August 19th

Tidioute—Local patrons of G. L. F. will hold their annual meeting in the Old Hose House here on Thursday, August 19, starting at 8:30 p. m. J. E. Drunkenbair, local committee chairman, announced today.

District Manager C. B. Osbeck, Jamestown, N. Y., will report on last year's operations of G. L. F. and the program will include a full-color, sound motion picture entitled "From These Roots," which depicts the story of how farmers have worked together from the barn raisings of early

The movie was largely filmed in Central New York locations.

Other reports on local G. L. F. matters have been scheduled. Patrons will have an opportunity to discuss G. L. F. policies. An interesting and varied entertainment program is being planned.

Members of the Local Patron's Committee are Lyle McKean, Albert Burnside, J. E. Drunkenbair, Beecher Shaw, Robert Sutton and Oakley Lynch, all of Tidioute. There will be no election until 1949 as all committee men are new as of May 1948.

Local patrons' annual meetings provide farmer-members with the machinery for controlling their cooperative. Local committeemen elected at these meetings not only determine policies for G. L. F. operations in the community, but also play an important part in deciding policies of the Cooperative G. L. F. Exchange system which is used by more than 85,000 farmers in New York, New Jersey and Northern Pennsylvania.

Vendors To Be Licensed In Youngsville

Youngsville, Aug. 10—Borough Council recently passed an ordinance which provides for the licensing of hawkers, vendors, peddlers and others going from house to house, or place to place, with or without vehicles, for the purpose of selling and peddling wares, goods or merchandise. License fee required is $1 per day, but no license will be issued for less than thirty days. Fines of $5 to $20 may be imposed for each day of violation without the proper license. This new ordinance, it is pointed out, does not apply to those selling vegetable or animal products raised on their own land.

Another ordinance, which to date has not been very rigidly enforced, refers to the cutting of weeds on vacant lots at least once monthly from May until October. Council reminds owners of such lots that their weeds are to be cut at once.

Those who are leaving to attend the wedding of Mary Elizabeth Hamlin and Arthur Bogren, Jr., in San Jose, Calif., are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lawson, Mrs. Marie Swanson and son, Tordon, of Youngsville; Mrs. Hanna Danielson and daughter, Ruth, Warren.

The ice cream social, previously announced by the Red Circle to be held on the lawn of the Methodist church, Tuesday evening, has been postponed to a later date, since it conflicted with a social to be held on the lawn of the Saron Lutheran church.

Miss Margaret Braze, secretary of the Youngsville borough is spending a vacation in Cleveland and Youngstown.

Methodist members and friends are invited to attend on August 17, an ox roast at the Ida M. Cribbs Home in Conneautville. Table service should be taken.

Wendell Engstrom is constructing an attractive home on College street extension, and other homes are being planned for construction on this street.

Work is progressing well on the redecoration of the Methodist church. At present services are being held in the church basement where there is ample room for these services in the large dining room.
